Martin Forsey,Scott Davies,Geoffrey Walford,2008-05-12 Which school should I choose for my child For many parents this question is one of the most important of their lives School choice is a slogan being voiced around the globe conjuring images of a marketplace with an abundance of educational options Those promoting educational choice also promise equality social advantage autonomy and self expression to families But what does this globalisation of school choice actually look like on the ground This collection brings together educationalists anthropologists and sociologists who use a rich array of empirical data to understand the complex realities of school choice across a range of political and social settings in Argentina Australia Canada China England India Israel Japan Singapore Tanzania and the United States Together they show that while the language of school choice has spread globally it has done so unevenly across and within nations and is always interpreted through local social and historical contexts Neo liberal policy initiatives are re shaping education systems in many nations but in complex and varied ways This collection shows that rather than eliminating equity concerns they re embed them within new frameworks of choice and accountability This is an important book for those interested in comparative education as well as the sociology and politics of schooling Inclusion in the City Patricia Potts,2013-10-18 Inclusion in the City explores inclusion and exclusion in the context of policy and practice in one English city Birmingham Here a commitment to redressing the inequalities experienced by many learners has been inhibited by difficulty in securing agreement to a definite policy for inclusion and consequently in sustaining initiatives for strengthening participation in community comprehensive education Grounded in an understanding of inclusion as a political and moral project the book presents a range of perspectives from policymakers and practitioners Detailed case studies based on research specially undertaken for this book relate inclusion to key issues in contemporary education such as the effects of selection by attainment faith schools and their communities single sex education and inclusive schools participation in further education and social mobility Insightful thought provoking and original Inclusion in the City detaches processes of inclusion and exclusion from the language of educational reform In so doing it highlights links between participation in education and poverty gender and cultural background as well as the absence of a link between urban and educational renewal

International Studies in Educational Inequality, Theory and Policy Richard Teese, Stephen Lamb, Marie Duru-Bellat, 2007-05-18 Inequality is a marked and persistent feature of education systems both in the developed and the developing worlds Major gaps in opportunity and in outcomes have become more critical than in the past thanks to the knowledge economy and globalization The pursuit of equity as a goal of public policy is examined in this book through a series of national case studies The book covers many different global contexts from the wealthiest to some of the poorest nations on earth It therefore offers a broad range of different theoretical and methodological approaches and brings together extensive international experience in equity policy

Education, Law and Diversity Neville Harris, 2007-01-30 Education is fundamentally concerned with realising the potential of every child but an increasing social diversity presents enormous challenges for the state in terms of its commitment to providing an appropriate education for all Factors such as ethnicity disability and material deprivation are associated with inequality social exclusion and the risk of low educational attainment Diversity also reflects divergent cultural values and norms In responding to the challenges posed by diversity public education authorities are to some extent constrained by individual or group rights This book examines the nature of these rights including those under the European Convention on Human Rights and the ways and contexts in which they operate Their social effects are also considered Areas discussed include the curriculum special educational needs and choice of school A key theme in the book is the promotion and enforcement of equal access to education including higher education Issues of multiculturalism the social integration of minorities religion in education and the recognition of children s independent rights are among those that are also discussed The book centres on England and Wales and covers the evolving legislative framework including the Education and Inspections Bill 2006 but relevant legal developments in other states are also highlighted
