Love Yourself And It Doesn't Matter Who You Marry Eva-Maria Zurhorst, 2007-04-26 Did you know the relationship you're in now is probably the best one you'll ever have? Did you know that most divorces could be avoided? This is the striking discovery behind Eva Maria Zurhorst's international bestselling book, a book that has transformed thousands of relationships. Eva Maria writes from her own personal experience of being involved in a dreadful marriage where she realised that she had a choice of either leaving her husband and starting a new relationship or trying to turn her marriage around. This extraordinary book shows that a deep relationship is possible even when all hope seems to be lost. Whatever the problem is, the solution lies in finding love for yourself. Eva Maria's powerful techniques and ideas will change the way you look at your relationships and yourself forever.

Imdeduya Gunter Senft, 2017-07-12 This volume presents five variants of the Imdeduya myth: two versions of the actual myth, a short story, a song, and John Kasaipwalova's English poem "Sail the Midnight Sun." This poem draws heavily on the Trobriand myth, which introduces the protagonists Imdeduya and Yolina and reports on Yolina's intention to marry the girl so famous for her beauty. On his long journey to Imdeduya's village and on their tragic love story, the texts are compared with each other, with a final focus on the clash between orality and scriptuality. Contrary to Kasaipwalova's fixed poetic text, the oral Imdeduya versions reveal the variability characteristic for oral tradition. This variability opens up questions about traditional stability and destabilization of oral literature, especially questions about the changing role of myth and magic in the Trobriand Islanders' society, which gets more and more integrated into the by now literal nation of Papua New Guinea.
