

A high-angle, low-light photograph of a Mosquito bomber in flight over the ocean at night. The aircraft is seen from the side, flying towards the right. It has a dark, sleek profile with a single engine visible in the tail section. The fuselage is light-colored, possibly white or light blue, with a dark stripe running along the side. The wings are also light-colored. The aircraft is dropping several incendiary bombs, which are visible as bright, glowing streaks falling towards the water. The water is dark blue, and the sky is a deep, dark blue. The overall mood is dramatic and intense.
