Secret Africa:

Africa's Hidden Histories Karin Barber, 2006 Africa's Hidden Histories takes a private and personal look into the world of everyday Africans as they put pen to paper. As it explores the innovative intense and sociable interest in reading and writing the text opens new avenues for understanding a rich and hidden history of Africa's creative expression. Secret Africa Lawrence George Green, 1980

Inventing Africa Robin Derricourt, 2011-03-04 Inventing Africa is a critical account of narratives which have selectively interpreted and misinterpreted the continent's deep past. Writers have created alluring images of lost cities, vast prehistoric migrations and golden ages of past civilisations. Debates continue on the African origins of humankind, the contributions of ancient Egypt to the world and Africa's importance to global history. Images of Africa simplifying a complex and diverse continent have existed from ancient Mediterranean worlds, slave trading nations and colonial powers to today's political elites, ecotourists and aid givers. Robin Derricourt draws on his background as publisher and practitioner in archaeology and history to explore the limits and the dangers of simplifications, arguing as with Said's concept of Orientalism that ambitious ideas can delude or oppress as well as inform. Defending Africa against some of the grand narratives that have been imposed upon its peoples, Inventing Africa will spark new debates in the history of Africa and of archaeology.

Roots Thembinkosi Lehloesa, 2011-08-22 In Africa no European country has had an influence as Britain. The first tangible break in the development was achieved by the South African parliament in 1934. But already Britain had shaped and predetermined South Africa's future. The country wanted no other than evolutionary change and this theme informed all administrations. Deception was the name of the game as was the violation of resolutions of the United Nations. Thus by the 1990s Britain was relative to other European countries in a far better position to influence the policies of an African National Congress run government.

Africa Various Authors, 2013-01-11 Complete set. Since 1961 the Adelphi Papers have provided some of the most informed accounts of international and strategic relations. Produced by the world renowned International Institute of Strategic Studies, each paper provides a short account of a subject of topical interest by a leading military figure, policy maker or academic. The project reprints the first forty years of papers arranged into thematic sets. The collection as a whole provides a rich and insightful account of international affairs during a period which spans the second half of the Cold War, the fall of the communist bloc and the emergence of a new regime with the United States as the sole superpower. There is a wealth of global coverage. Four volumes on east and southeast Asia as well as individual volumes on China, Japan and Korea. Particular attention is given to the Middle East with volumes addressing internal sources of instability, geo-politics and the role of the superpowers, the Israel-Palestine conflict and the Iran-Iraq War and the first Gulf War. There is also a volume on oil and insecurity. There are also two volumes on Africa, the site of most of the world's wars during the period. The IISS has obviously made a particular contribution to the understanding of military strategy and this is reflected with material on topics such as urban and guerrilla warfare, nuclear deterrence and the role of information in modern warfare Volumes on military strategy are complemented by approaches from other disciplines such as defence economics Key selling points Early papers were only distributed by the IISS and will have achieved limited penetration of the academic market A host of major authors on a range of different subjects eg Gerald Segal on China Michael Leifer on Southeast Asia Sir Lawrence Freidman on the revolution in military affairs Raymond Vernon on multinationals and defence economics Individual volumes will have a strong appeal to different markets eg the volume on defence economics for economists various volumes for Asian Studies etc American International Pictures Rob Craig, 2019-03-05 American International Pictures was in many ways the missing link between big budget Hollywood studios poverty row B movie factories and low rent exploitation movie distributors AIP first targeted teen audiences with science fiction horror and fantasy but soon grew to encompass many genres and demographics at times it was indistinguishable from many of the major studios From Abby to Zontar this filmography lists more than 800 feature films television series and TV specials by AIP and its partners and subsidiaries Special attention is given to American International Television the TV arm of AIP and an appendix lists the complete AITV catalog The author also discusses films produced by founders James H Nicholson and Samuel Z Arkoff after they left the company South Africa's Weapons of Mass Destruction Helen E. Purkitt, Stephen F. Burgess, 2005-05-11 South Africa's Weapons of Mass Destruction offers an in depth view of the secret development and voluntary disarmament of South Africa's nuclear biological and chemical weapons program Project Coast Helen E Purkitt and Stephen F Burgess explore how systems used for nuclear biological and chemical weapons in South Africa were acquired and established beyond the gaze of international and domestic political actors On the basis of archival evidence from Project Coast and their own extensive interviews with military and political officials Purkitt and Burgess consider what motivates countries to acquire and build such powerful weaponry and examine when and how decisions are made to dismantle a military arsenal voluntarily Questions such as how to destroy weapons safely and keep them from reappearing on international markets are considered along with comparative strategies for successful disarmament in other nation states

Africa's Radicalisms and Conservatisms , 2021-01-11 With Africa as its point of reference and departure this volume examines why and how the two concepts radicalisms and conservatism should not be taken as mere binaries around which to organize knowledge It demonstrates that these concepts have multiple and diverse meanings as perceived and understood from different disciplinary vantage points hence the deliberate pluralization of the terms The essays show what happens when one juxtaposes the two concepts and how they are easily intertwined when different peoples lived experiences of poverty political and social alienation education intolerance youth activism social in justice violence etc across the length and breadth of Africa are brought to bear on our understandings of these two particularisms Contributors are Adekunle Victor Owoyomi Adeshina Francis Akindutire Adewale O Owoseni Bright Nkrumah Clement Chipenda Ebenezer Babajide Ishola Edwin Etieyibo Israel Oberedjemurho Ugoma Jonah Uyieh Jonathan O Chimakonam Madina Tlostanova Maduka Enyimba

The Politics of Weapons Inspections Nathan E. Busch, Joseph F. Pilat, 2017-03-21 Given recent controversies over suspected WMD programs in proliferating countries there is an increasingly urgent need for effective monitoring and verification regimes the international mechanisms including on site inspections intended in part to clarify the status of WMD programs in suspected proliferators Yet the strengths and limitations of these nonproliferation and arms control mechanisms remain unclear How should these regimes best be implemented What are the technological political and other limitations to these tools What technologies and other innovations should be utilized to make these regimes most effective How should recent developments such as the 2015 Iran nuclear deal or Syria's declared renunciation and actual use of its chemical weapons influence their architecture The Politics of Weapons Inspections examines the successes failures and lessons that can be learned from WMD monitoring and verification regimes in order to help determine how best to maintain and strengthen these regimes in the future In addition to examining these regimes technological political and legal contexts Nathan E Busch and Joseph F Pilat reevaluate the track record of monitoring and verification in the historical cases of South Africa Libya and Iraq assess the prospects of using these mechanisms in verifying arms control and disarmament and apply the lessons learned from these cases to contemporary controversies over suspected or confirmed programs in North Korea Iran and Syria Finally they provide a forward looking set of policy recommendations for the future

Hidden History Gerry Docherty, James MacGregor, 2013-07-04 Think you know about British history and the causes of the First World War Think again This fascinating and gripping study of events at the turn of the Twentieth Century is a remarkable insight into how political and social factors that we widely accept to be the causes of The Great War were really just a construct put together by a very small but powerful political elite Thought provoking Docherty and Macgregor do not mince their words their arguments are powerful Britain at War Simply astonishing Reader review Very illuminating Reader review You simply MUST read this book Reader review This is a page turner Reader review Hidden History uniquely exposes those responsible for the First World War It reveals how accounts of the war's origins have been deliberately falsified to conceal the guilt of the secret cabal of very rich and powerful men in London responsible for the most heinous crime perpetrated on humanity For ten years they plotted the destruction of Germany as the first stage of their plan to take control of the world The assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand was no chance happening It lit a fuse that had been carefully set through a chain of command stretching from Sarajevo through Belgrade and St Petersburg to that cabal in London Our understanding of these events has been firmly trapped in a web of falsehood and duplicity carefully constructed by the victors at Versailles in 1919 and maintained by compliant historians ever since The official version is fatally flawed warped by the volume of evidence they destroyed or concealed from public view Hidden History poses a tantalising challenge The authors ask only that you examine the evidence they lay before you
