From live productions of the 1950s like Requiem for a Heavyweight to big budget mini-series like Band of Brothers, long form television programs have been helmed by some of the most creative and accomplished names in directing. Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors brings attention to the directors of these productions, citing every director of stand-alone long form television programs, made-for-TV movies, movie-length pilots, mini-series and feature-length anthology programs, as well as drama, comedy and musical specials of more than 60 minutes. Each of the nearly 2,000 entries provides a brief career sketch of the director, his or her notable works, awards and a filmography. Many entries also provide brief discussions of key shows, movies and other productions. Appendixes include Emmy Awards, DGA Awards and other accolades, as well as a list of anthology programs. A much-needed reference that celebrates these often neglected artists, Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the history of the medium.
