The Sacred Life of Modernist Literature Allan Kilner-Johnson, 2022-06-16 Probing the relationship between modernist literary experimentation and several key strands of occult practice which emerged in Europe from roughly 1894 to 1944 this book sets the work of leading modernist writers alongside lesser known female writers and writers in languages other than English to more fully portray the aesthetic and philosophical connections between modernism and the occult Although the early decades of the twentieth century the era of cocktails motorcars bobbed hair and war are often described as a period of newness and innovation many writers of the time found inspiration and visionary brilliance by turning to the mysterious occult past This book's principle intervention is to reimagine the contours and boundaries of literary modernism by welcoming into the conversation a number of significant female writers and writers in languages other than English who are often still relegated to the fringes of modernist studies Well remembered poets and novelists such as Ezra Pound W B Yeats and Aleister Crowley were tied to occult beliefs and this book sets these leading figures alongside less well remembered but equally splendid modernists including Paul Brunton Mary Butts Alexandra David Neel Florence Farr Dion Fortune Hermann Hesse and Rudolf Steiner From the little magazines where occultism and Fabianism were comfortable companions to consulting rooms of psychoanalysts where archetypes were revealed to be both mystical and mundane to the forbidden mountain trails that led to formidable spiritual teachers the conditions of modernism were invariably those conditions which inspired a return to the occult traditions that many thinkers believed had long evaporated Indeed in many ways these traditions were the making of the modern world By uncovering hidden hopes and anxieties that faced a newly modern Western Europe this book demonstrates how literary modernists understood occultism as a universal form of cultural expression which has inspired creative exuberance since the dawn of civilisation Understanding Buddhism Nolan Pliny Jacobson, 2010-03-19 Jacobson presents Buddhism unencumbered by Western categories and concepts free from the cognitive bias from the concept oriented definition minded preoccupations inherited from the ancient Greeks It is an interpretation of the central ideas that have characterized all forms of Buddhism for 25 centuries The Heart of Buddhist Philosophy Nolan Pliny Jacobson, 2010-03-19 In arriving at the heart of Buddhist philosophy Nolan Pliny Jacobson attempts to eliminate some of the confusion in the West and perhaps in the East as well concerning the Buddhist view of what is concrete and ultimately real in the world Jacobson presents N g rjuna the Plato of the Buddhist tradition as the major exemplar of the Buddhist expression of life In his comparison of Buddhism and Western theology Jacobson demonstrates that some efforts in Western religious thought approach the Buddhist empirical stance

Performing Science and the Virtual Sue-Ellen Case,2007-01-24 This impressive new book from Sue Ellen Case looks at how science has been performed throughout history tracing a line from nineteenth century alchemy to the twenty first century virtual avatar In this bold and wide ranging book that is written using a crossbreed of styles we encounter a glance of Edison in his laboratory enter the soundscape of John Cage and raid tombs with Lara Croft Case looks at the intersection of science and performance the academic treatment of classical plays and internet like bytes on contemporary issues and experiments where the array of performances include electronic music Sun Ra the jazz musician the recursive play of tape from Samuel Beckett to Pauline Oliveros Performing Science and the Virtual reviews how well these performances borrow from spiritualist notions of transcendence as well as the social codes of race gender and economic exchange This book will appeal to academics and graduates studying theatre and performance studies cultural studies and philosophy

Alexandra David-Néel Earle Rice,2013-10 From the age of five Alexandra David Ne l longed for adventure and freedom from the societal expectations of women in nineteenth century Europe Alexandra David-Neel Infobase Holdings, Inc.,2004 Women Explorers chronicles the lives of six intrepid women whose hunger for adventure and knowledge compelled them on paths of discovery around the world Their discoveries not only brought stores of information on topics ranging from ancient dinosaur fossils to life in Tibet but also challenged the established roles of women in their fields From the age of five Alexandra David Neel longed for adventure and freedom from the societal expectations of women in nineteenth century Europe She traveled to Asia where she learned about Eastern religions and cultures and became the first non Asian woman to enter the forbidden Tibetan city of Lhasa

Soul And Man Kit Cain,2006-05 Insofar as I am able to discover and I have purposefully not looked very hard no one has yet by year 2004 come up with an adequate description or definition of the human soul After attempting to tackle the task for three years I can easily understand why Being a forerunner in unexplored and unknown territory carries with it at first a level of uncertainty which runs a high risk of making a fool of of any intelligent explorer Ironically the quest produces only the fool for the perspective gained from the attempt alone reveals a previously unseen unfelt unknown dimension which dwarfs the mind and intelligence of man altogether Had I not long since come to know myself as a fool albeit a wise one I would never have attempted the Herculean task of making the hidden soul more visible The frame of reference for the soul established in this book is taken from thinking and experience far broader deeper and higher than my own much of it having existed in secret teachings thousands of years old They were secret because mankind was not yet ready for them or else someone or something at some higher level than the human level didn t want the information revealed My compulsion however is to make at least my own understanding public along with my own intuitive realizations and conclusions for those who are capable of seeing beyond the material as well as within it The book is not easy reading It was never intended to be It took me some 30 years to begin to understand what is written herein Even so what is written still leaves me with a void of ignorance which I can only hope time will dispel This is really my personal notebook a piece of open architecture for further thought It is actually my understanding at age 70 Hopefully my perspective and understanding will continue onward and upward from here Kit Cain     The Essence of Jung's Psychology and Tibetan Buddhism Radmila Moacanin,2012-05-22

The Essence of Jung's Psychology and Tibetan Buddhism cuts to the heart of two very different yet remarkably similar traditions The author touches on many of their major ideas the collective unconscious and karma archetypes and deities the analyst and the spiritual friend and mandalas Within Tibetan Buddhism she focuses on tantra and relates its emphasis on spiritual transformation also a major concern of Jung This expanded edition includes new material on the integration of the two traditions and the importance of these paths of the heart in today's unsteady world     Real Magic Isaac

Bonewits,1989-01-15 From an occult scholar who is witty and possessed of a mind that peers around corners a fresh exploration of magic Publishers Weekly From one of the founders of the modern pagan movement comes an examination of psychic phenomena from ESP to Eastern ritual In this classic text for students and practitioners of occultism Isaac Bonewits explores the basic laws of magic relating them to the natural laws of the universe A book both scholarly and readable San Francisco Chronicle Groundbreaking and thought provoking this seminal work of magical theory was perhaps the first logical rigorously sensible look at magic PanGaia     School of Udhra Nathaniel Mackey,1993-08 School of Udhra takes its title from the Bedouin poetic tradition associated with the seventh century Arab poet Djamil the Udhrite school of poets who when loving die Bedouin tradition however is only one of the strands of world revery these poems have recourse to They obey a bedouin impulse of their own fugitive moving on nomadic Ogo the fox the Dogon avatar of singleness and unrest runs throughout crossing and recrossing divided ground primal isolate insistent within the book's cross cultural weave The poems track variances of union and disunion social sexual mystic mythic both formally and in their content They return rhapsody to its root sense stitching together Threads ranging through ancient Egypt shamanic Siberia Rastafarian Jamaica and elsewhere figure in inflected by conjunctive and disjunctive cadences inspired by jazz Gnaoua trance chant cante jondo and other musics     Vito Loves Geraldine Janice Eidus,1990-03 In these eighteen stories Janice Eidus with comic and tender irony casts a sharp eye upon contemporary myths of romance rebellion and self discovery     Keys to the Garden Ammiel

Alcalay,1996-10 One hundred stories poems and essays by Oriental Jews on subjects ranging from race to political allegiance One story is on a professor's wife who unable to conceive takes a student to bed     History as Mystery Michael Parenti,2016-08-22 In a lively challenge to mainstream history Michael Parenti does battle with a number of mass marketed historical myths He shows how history's victors distort and suppress the documentary record in order to perpetuate their power and privilege And he demonstrates how historians are influenced by the professional and class environment in which they work Pursuing themes ranging from antiquity to modern times from the Inquisition and Joan of Arc to the anti labor bias of present day history books History as Mystery demonstrates how past and present can inform each other and how history can be a truly exciting and engaging subject Michael Parenti always provocative and eloquent gives us a lively as well as valuable critique of orthodoxy posing as history Howard Zinn author of A People s History of the United States Deserves to become an instant classic Bertell Ollman author of Dialectical Investigations Those who keep secret the past and lie about it condemn us to repeat it Michael Parenti unveils the history of falsified history from the early Christian church to the present a fascinating darkly revelatory tale Daniel Ellsberg author of The Pentagon Papers Solid if surely controversial stuff Kirkus

America Besieged Michael Parenti,1998-05 America Besieged deals with the underlying forces within U S society that deeply affect our lives Showing how we are being misled and harmed by those who profess to have our interests at heart Michael Parenti writes We are indeed a nation besieged not from without but from within not subverted from below but from above the moneyed power exercises a near monopoly influence over our political life over the economy the state and the media Some Americans are astonished to hear of it Others have had their suspicions although they may not be quite sure how it all adds up This book invites the reader to stop blaming the powerless and poor and in that good old American phrase start following the money That is the first and most important step toward lifting the siege and bringing democracy back to life Michael Parenti one of America s most astute and entertaining political analysts is the author of Against Empire Dirty Truths Blackshirts and Reds Rational Fascism and the Overthrow of Communism Democracy for the Few Land of Idols Political Mythology in America and many other books
