Hidden Places Sarah Baxter, 2020-03-03 Wander off the beaten track to uncover the world's most secret destinations discover an ancient gateway to the Mayan underworld a mysterious underwater monument sunken off the Ryukyu Islands in Japan or a prehistoric village covered for centuries by a huge sand dune in the Orkney Islands. Travel journalist Sarah Baxter's evocative words instantly transport you to twenty five of the world's most obscured places. From remote locations that visitors must trek and wade just to catch a glimpse of to forgotten cities only recently revealed and places purposefully hidden as sanctuaries from persecution each destination has a very human story at its heart. Savour a moment to delight in the serenity and seclusion of the secret escapes collected in this beautifully illustrated guide full of surprise wonder and sights otherwise unseen.

The Book of Hidden Places Lena Bella, 2024-09-26 Do you have secrets locked inside? Deep dark secrets you thought you had to hide. Is your world sad and gray? Do you think this is where you have to stay? Do you think you're weak not very strong? And there's no one brave enough to help and bring along? Do you wish that someone could understand? And possibly have a better plan? Open this book and you will see. That's not the way it has to be. There's light and hope and people that care. And spiritual beings that will always be there. Don't hesitate one minute more. Open the book step through the door.

Outdoor Learning Environments Helen Little, 2020-07-25 Educators have a key pedagogical role in promoting early years outdoor play in natural environments Active outdoor play involving risk taking has been linked to positive effects on social health and behaviour and encourages physical activity and motor skill development At the same time it has been recognised that opportunities for children to experience outdoor learning have been reduced in recent decades due to the impacts of technology urbanisation and social change This book brings together renowned authors with research and professional experience in a range of disciplines to provide a comprehensive guide to developing positive and engaging outdoor learning environments in the early years Part 1 looks at pedagogy and outdoor environments and considers the value of risk taking and developing a young child's appreciation of the natural world Part 2 examines the key principles involved in the design and planning of these spaces such as applying the relevant equipment standards and regulations Part 3 explores how educators can develop an understanding of children's own perspectives on outdoor spaces including promoting agency and recognising the importance of private playspaces Part 4 examines different cultural perspectives on outdoor play including Indigenous approaches while Part 5 considers the range of experiences possible beyond purposefully designed spaces from visiting nature reserves to exploring urban environments A much needed and comprehensive resource for pre service teachers and educators of young children that encompasses philosophies theories pedagogy and practice for purposeful engagement of children in all kinds of outdoor spaces in Australia Dr Kumara Ward Director of Academic Program Early Childhood Education Western Sydney University This seminal work will provide a shared language and framework for educators policy developers community builders and researchers in exploring the justifications for engaging children in well considered outdoor learning places and spaces Leanne Grogan School of Education Outdoor and Environmental Studies La Trobe University
