

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a white lace-trimmed dress and a red flower in her hair, sits on a swing. She is holding a violin and looking thoughtfully to the side. The swing is suspended from a large, gnarled tree branch. The background is a dark, misty forest with a path leading into the distance. The scene is filled with soft, glowing light particles.

Egyptians, Carthaginians, Assyrians, Babylonians, Medes and Persians, Grecians, and Macedonians Charles Rollin, 1836 The Dark Interval Pdraic Killeen, 2022-05-05 Invoking key concepts from the philosophical writings of Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben The Dark Interval examines a subtle but distinct iconography of passivity stillness and profound self affection that recurs across noir films of every era In doing so it identifies the emergence of a specific cinematic figure the intervallic noir protagonist exposed to the redemptive force of his or her own passion Significantly the book contextualises the iconography of film noir in relation to prior art historical visual traditions in particular earlier representations of melancholia and the saturnine locating noir against a much broader canvas than has been the norm Examining central noir films of the classic and modern era The Killers The Man Who Wasn t There as well as films at the peripheries of noir from Jacques Tourneur s Cat People to Wong Kar Wai s 2046 the book locates a series of iconographic gestures performance traditions and affective tonalities at once specific to noir and yet resonant with a deeper cultural and philosophical heritage It is a meditation that uniquely grapples with the look and the feel of noir and which dares to detect a unique quality of beatitude that runs through a certain strain of noir films In doing so it illuminates why film noir remains one of the most provocative and affecting visual milieus of our time J. Hillis Miller and the Possibilities of Reading Eamonn Dunne,2010-05-06 Matchbook David Wills,2005 Matchbook consists of nine essays written around or in response to work published by Jacques Derrida since 1980 The focal point of the essays is the Envois which forms part of Derrida s Post Card Particular attention is paid to how that text articulates with the ethical and political emphases of Derrida s more recent work but also to its autobiographical conceit The incendiary reference of the book s title underscores deconstruction s engagement with questions of reading relations between slow reading and the speed of technology and the political effects of an internationalized deconstruction in a globalized culture It is in terms of what deconstruction can have us think about the speed of technology and technologies of reading that Derrida s work has made one of its most important contributions to philosophy and literary and cultural studies The book concentrates on that as proof of the continued relevance of such work

Derrida and the Future of Literature Joseph G. Kronick,1999-09-30 Presented here is the fullest account to date of Derrida s unconventional understanding of literature and its importance to the development of a poststructural ethics Kronick explains why Derrida has had such a great impact upon literary studies and at the same time he demonstrates how different Derrida s conception of literature is from the literary critic s Focusing on such key topics as singularity justice law aporia and the event this book explores the unexpected ways literature appears in Derrida s works and is tied to his major concepts Secret Histories David Wyatt,2010-11-01 Secret Histories claims that the history of the nation is hidden in plain sight within the pages of twentieth century American literature David Wyatt argues that the nation s fiction and nonfiction expose a secret history that cuts beneath the straight histories of our official accounts And it does so by revealing personal stories of love work family war and interracial romance as they were lived out across the decades of the twentieth century Wyatt reads authors both familiar and neglected examining double consciousness in the post Civil War era through works by Charles W Chesnutt W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington He reveals aspects of the Depression in the fiction of F Scott Fitzgerald Anzia Yezierska and John Steinbeck Period by period Wyatt s nuanced readings recover the felt sense of life as it was lived opening surprising dimensions of the critical issues of a given time The rise of the women s movement for example is revived in new appraisals of works by Eudora Welty Ann Petry and Mary McCarthy Running through the examination of individual works and times is Wyatt s argument about reading itself Reading is not a passive activity but an empathetic act of cocreation what Faulkner calls overpassing to love Empathetic reading recognizes and relives the emotional cultural and political dimensions of an individual and collective past And discovering a usable American past as Wyatt shows enables us to confront the urgencies of our present moment Secret History David Barber,2019-12-15 In David Barber s third collection of poetry the past makes its presence felt from first to last Drawing on a wealth of eclectic
