Big Pharma, Women, and the Labour of Love Thea Cacchioni,2015-07-27 In 2010 Thea Cacchioni testified before the US Food and Drug Administration against flibanserin a drug proposed to treat low sexual desire in women dubbed by the media the pink Viagra She was one of many academics and activists sounding the alarm about the lack of science behind the search for potentially lucrative female sexual enhancement drugs In her book Big Pharma Women and the Labour of Love Cacchioni moves beyond the search for a sexual pharmaceutical drug for women to ask a broader question how does the medicalization of female sexuality already affect women s lives Using in depth interviews with doctors patients therapists and other medical practitioners Cacchioni shows that whatever the future of the pink Viagra heterosexual women often now feel expected to take on the job of managing their and their partners sexual desires Their search for sexual pleasure can be a labour of love work that is enjoyable for some but a chore for others An original and insightful take on the burden of heterosexual norms in an era of compulsory sexuality Cacchioni s investigation should open up a wide ranging discussion about the true impact of the medicalization of sexuality Bitch ,2006

Facing the Complexities of Women's Sexual Desire Vera S. Maass,2006-11-22 This book represents a broad based approach to a narrow but complex issue The issue causes distress for many and has been instrumental in family disruption and divorce

Women's sexual desire whether it is too little or too much has become an issue of growing concern and vague promises for solution. In the meantime the women are looking for answers consulting professionals in the field of human sexuality physicians or therapists media advice and self help books. The material discussed in this book is not part of any structured research. The women encountered in the pages of this book have not been selected on a random basis. Some have been clients some are volunteers from the general population and another group is made up of undergraduate college students. The college students came from a varied ethnic and cultural background while the clients mainly were of white and African American background. The volunteers were predominantly from a white middle class population. There is no claim that the women are representative of all women in the general population.
