book for the first time and a generous selection from her earlier collections give us Ann Beattie at stunning mid career Emotionally complex edgy and funny the stories encompass a huge range of tone and feeling The wife of a couple who have lost a child comforts her husband with an amazing act of tenderness A man who s been shifting from place to place always finding the same kind of people sometimes the same people in various configurations tries to locate himself in the universe An intricate dance of adultery brings down a marriage A housekeeper experiences a startling epiphany while looking into her freezer one hot summer night The long humorous roll of a couple s four night fight finally explodes into happiness Beattie has often been called the chronicler of her generation and these stories capture perfectly the moods and actions of our world since the seventies people on the move living in group houses smoking too much dope people settling down splitting up coming to terms Margaret Atwood said of a previous collection that a new Beattie is almost like a fresh bulletin from the front We snatch it up eager to know what s happening out there on the edge of that shifting and dubious no man s land known as interpersonal relations The new stories have the same power A family secret is revealed in a strange and puzzling act that becomes understood only many years later In an AIDS ward certain questions take on special significance A hostile eight year old and his father s live in girlfriend move in fits and starts toward d tente In prose by turns laserlike and lyrical these memorable evocative stories authentically recall the details and feelings of their time But the truths revealed are as in all fiction of the first rank timeless

A Wonderful Stroke of Luck Ann Beattie,2020-04-07 A Good Housekeeping Best Book of the Year Every sentence shines with wit originality and sharp observations The Boston Globe A razor sharp deeply felt novel about the complicated relationship between a charismatic teacher and his students and the secrets we keep from those we love At a boarding school in New Hampshire Ben joins the honor society led by Pierre LaVerdere an enigmatic brilliant yet perverse teacher who instructs his students not only about how to reason but how to prevaricate As the years go by LaVerdere s covert and overt instruction lingers in his students lives as they seek some sense of purpose or meaning When Ben feels the pace of his life accelerating and views his intimate relationships as less and less fulfilling there seems to be a subtext he s not able to access And what really did Bailey Academy teach him While relationships with his stepmother and sister improve and a move to upstate New York offers respite from his anxiety about love and work LaVerdere s reappearance in his life disturbs his equilibrium Everything he once thought he knew about his teacher and himself is called into question Written by one of our most iconic writers known for casting a cold eye on her generation s ambivalence and sometimes mistaken ambition A Wonderful Stroke of Luck is a keenly observed psychological study of a man who alternates between careful driving and hazardous risk taking as he struggles to incorporate his past into the vertiginous present

American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2014-10-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen Didion's sun baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Bambara Oates's small town often violent neurotics Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of
