Sector Participation Decisions In Labor Supply Models:

Sector Participation Decisions in Labor Supply Models Menno Pradhan, 1995 Living Standards Measurement Study No 113 This paper analyzes the extent to which workers in Bolivia face barriers to entry in the formal and informal sectors of the urban labor market These barriers are most prevalent in the formal sector because The National Institute on Aging Macroeconomic-demographic Model National Institute on Aging, 1984 Transition, Recession and Labour Supply Paolo Verme, 2020-11-25 This title was first published in 2001 Exploring the relationship between the recession and labour supply in Kazakhstan during the 1990s this volume develops an innovative new model of the transitional process in the context of the CIS It departs from conventional economic models explaining the process of transition transferring the focus of attention from labour demand to labour supply with a view to clarifying how the transitional recession has affected households and in turn how these changes modified the supply of labour Paolo Verme examines how the dynamic of the reallocation of labour between state and private enterprises has been drastically altered by the growth of self employment and also takes a much needed look at the contribution of other factors offering an original explanation of this most important economic phenomenon Model Living Standards Measurement Study Survey Questionnaire for the Countries of the Former Soviet Union Raylynn Oliver, 1997-01-01 Living Standards Measurement Study Working Paper No 130 This document presents a set of Living Standards Measurement Study LSMS questionnaires that have been developed for use in the Russian speaking countries of the former Soviet Union The questionnaires are available in English and Russian as well as in an electronic format The document describes in detail how to modify the questionnaires for use in any specific country The author guides the questionnaire writer through the modification process illustrating the important aspects of LSMS surveys the translation and field testing procedures and a section by section description of the types of modification that are likely to be required to suit particular goals and circumstances Also available in Russian ISBN 0 8213 3935 4 Stock No 13935

Poverty Comparisons and Household Survey Design Steven Howes, Jean Olson Lanjouw, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 356 The World Bank has become the world's largest lender in the health nutrition and population HNP sectors requiring the institution to seek ever greater evidence that its work is effective on the ground This paper reviews the literature on the causes of observed changes in health and fertility levels on the evaluation of policies and on programs designed to accelerate these changes It presents a framework that delineates the relationships between Bank activities in the HNP sectors the characteristics of a health care system household behavior and changes in health outcomes The paper also describes a strategy for assessing the development effectiveness of the Bank's work in these sectors The underlying thesis is that changes in health policy and improved outcomes depend on the demand for health services and on institutional incentives that drive health care system performance Econometric Models of Asian-Pacific Countries Shinichi Ichimura, Yasumi Matsumoto, 2012-12-06 This book is a sequel to our first report of ASIAN LINK PROJECT in 1985

Econometric Models of Asian LINK Springer Verlag Tokyo Berlin New York Now the scope is expanded to Asian Pacific Countries in coverage so that this monograph presents the econometric models of Japan the United States Canada China Korea Taiwan Hong Kong Thailand the Philippines Malaysia Singapore Indonesia Australia and the European Community We are particularly happy to have included the excellent models of Australia and Canada whose economies are essential parts of the Asian Pacific Economic Community Most of those models were presented at the Workshop of Asian Link Project held in Bandung Indonesia at the time of the Second Convention of the East Asian Economic Association 1990 Those models have been up dated since then and several other important models were added Unlike our previous book we have not tried here to link these national models as a regional or global model in any way except for the model by S Kinoshita which offers a regional linkage for Pacific basin economies by linking the US Japan Canada the European Community countries as a group Asian NIEs Korea Hong Kong Taiwan ASEAN Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and East Asian economies As we argued in our previous publication we tried to publish these econometric models again with the statistical data as much as we could so as to enable the reader examine the estimation and performance of the models by himself

Guidelines for Constructing Consumption Aggregates for Welfare Analysis Angus Deaton, Salman Zaidi, 2002-01-01 In September 2001 staff from the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund met with the objective of strengthening collaboration between the two organizations in projects of civil service reform This strengthened collaboration will have key benefits in ensuring consistency between the conflicting goals of the two organizations establishing realistic objectives within the reform process and maintaining a core set of wage and employment data The principal conclusion arrived at was that World Bank and IMF staff should be engaging in collaboration earlier in the reform process To guide the collaboration six foundations were identified These include develop a medium term fiscal framework foster national ownership by making reforms politically feasible focus and streamline conditionality agree on sequencing and timing of reforms and strengthen data collection These principals will be tested for effectiveness in several focus countries

The Economics of Gender in Mexico Elizabeth G. Katz, Maria Cecilia Correia, 2001-01-01 Extrait de la couverture Mexico has witnessed major demographic social and economic changes since the 1960s In this context the distinct roles of men and women have also changed as exemplified by female labor force participation which almost tripled in the second half of the 20th century However traditional gender roles continue to constrain men's and women's opportunities and well being in Mexico The book examines these issues from a life cycle and economic perspective It looks at the way traditional gender roles shape male and female economic activities and outcomes beginning with school age children and their education patterns continuing with the labor force participation of adults in rural and urban areas and ending with the situation of elderly men and women The book contains new material on changes in the maquiladora sector which has historically provided important work opportunities for women as well as the distinct impact of ejido reform on rural men and women

Keeping the Promise of Social Security in Latin America Indermit S. Gill, Truman G. Packard, Juan Yermo, 2004-10-25 Empirical analysis of two decades of pioneering pension and social security reform in Latin America and the Caribbean shows that much has been achieved but that critical challenges remain In tackling this unfinished agenda a great deal can be learned from the reform experience of countries in the region Keeping the Promise produced by the chief economist's office for the Latin America and Caribbean region at the World Bank evaluates policy reforms in 12 countries points to successes and shortcomings and proposes priorities and options for future reform

Progress and Challenges of Nonfinancial Defined Contribution Pension Schemes Robert Holzmann, Edward Palmer, Robert Palacios, Stefano Sacchi, 2019-10-21 The individual account based but unfunded approach to mandated public pension systems is a reform benchmark for all pension schemes promising fair and financially sustainable benefits Nonfinancial defined contribution NDC pension schemes originated in Italy and Sweden in the 1990s were then adopted by Latvia Norway and Poland envisaged but not implemented in various other countries such as Egypt and Russia and remain under discussion in many nations around the world such as China and France In its complete form the approach also comprises budget financed basic income provisions and mandated or voluntary funded provisions Volume 1 of this book offers an assessment of countries that were early adopters before addressing key aspects of policy implementation and design review including how best to combine basic income provisions with an NDC scheme how to deal with heterogeneity in longevity and how to adjust NDC scheme design and labor market policies to deliver on reform expectations Volume 2 addresses a second set of issues including the gender pension gap and what family policies can do about it within the NDC framework labor market issues and administrative challenges of NDC schemes and how countries are coping the role of communication in these pension schemes the complexity of cross border pension taxation and much more Progress and Challenges of Nonfinancial Defined Contribution Pension Schemes is the third in a series of books analyzing the progress challenges and adjustment options of this reform revolution for mandated public pension systems Pension reform is a major issue in many countries The development of the nonfinancial defined contribution pension plan in the 90 s was a major advance in pension design By reporting actual country experiences and exploring properties of plan designs this latest collection of essays is a valuable contribution well worth reading Peter Diamond Professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology 2010 winner of the Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Sciences A highly stimulating publication for policy makers and researchers alike It pushes the analytical frontier for policy challenges that all public pension schemes are confronted with but that the nonfinancial defined contribution approach promises to handle best Noriyuki Takayama President Research Institute for Policies on Pension and Aging Tokyo and professor emeritus Hitotsubashi University Tokyo In a changing world where pensions are more than ever linked to labor markets communication tools and flexibility considerations this anthology provides a unique up to date analysis of nonfinancial defined contribution pension schemes By mixing international experiences and theoretical studies it demonstrates the high adaptability of such pension schemes to changing social challenges Pierre Devolder Professor of Finance and Actuarial Sciences Catholic University of Louvain Belgium Labor Market Uncertainty and Private Sector Labor Supply in Russia Steven Stillman, 2000

Social Assistance in Albania Harold Alderman, 1998-01-01 Albania provides a small amount of social assistance to nearly 20% of its population through a system which allows a degree of community discretion in determining distribution This study investigates the poverty targeting of this program It indicates that relative to other safety net programs in low income countries social assistance in Albania is fairly well targeted to the poor Chronic Illness and Retirement in Jamaica

Sudhanshu Handa, Monica Neitzert, 1998-01-01 This paper explores the impact of six noncommunicable chronic diseases NCCDs on Jamaicans decisions to retire Using the 1991 and 1992 Survey of Living Conditions database it examines the significantly negative impact that NCCDs have on people remaining in employment Chapters present findings that suggest the need to integrate health and labor market policies discuss health transition and the labor market in Jamaica give data samples and health measures provide an econometric model examine NCCDs in respect to gender and other social issues and present sensitivity analysis on the impact of physical health status on employment How Does Schooling of Mothers

Improve Child Health? Paul Glewwe, 1997-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 354 Water users organizations are one example of community participation at work in the sectors of irrigation drinking water supply and sanitation This paper looks at the conditions under which these organizations are most effective in managing water systems It identifies key external factors and internal structures for sustainable user associations as well as the conditions for partnership between government agencies and the associations Projecting Science and Engineering Personnel Requirements for the 1990s

United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science, Space, and Technology. Subcommittee on Investigations and Oversight, 1993 Handbook of Development Economics Hollis Chenery, Hollis Burnley Chenery, 1988 Economics development concepts and approaches structural transformation human resources and labor markets planning and resource allocation international aspects country experience with development Gender, Ethnicity and Employment Rowshan Ara Haque, M. Ohidul Haque, 2008-12-11 This book provides an empirical investigation of the employment status of Non English Speaking Background NESB and Australia born women The analysis adds to the work of Australian authors who have found that NESB women are underrepresented in occupations that have relatively high pay and congenial working conditions and are over represented amongst the unemployed This study develops a definition of primary sector employment from the occupation categories in the 1996 Census and uses the ANU2 occupational prestige scale and earnings data from the Census The book constructed univariate probit models for labour market participation and primary sector employment and unemployment for both groups of women The models were estimated using the 1% sample from the 1996 Australian Census The Census provided useful information regarding labour market status and a range of human capital and demographic variables that were relevant to the analysis These models suggested that NESB women faced disadvantages in the labour market if they had poor English language skills or had arrived in Australia comparatively recently. The models tended to support the works of other authors who have found that education and labour market experience were significant in improving the labour market position of individuals.

Constructing an Indicator of Consumption for the Analysis of Poverty Jesko Hentschel, Peter Lanjouw, 1996-01-01. Living Standards Measurement Study Working Paper No 123. This paper analyzes the determinants of demand for medical services in urban areas of Bolivia. It also examines the possible trade offs between cost recovery and the use of health services for different age, sex, ethnic and income groups. The data drawn from a multipurpose household survey conducted by the World Bank and Bolivia's statistical office are used in designing an econometric model to measure the price elasticity of demand for medical care.

Minimum Wages and Employment C. Ragacs, 2004-06-08. Christian Ragacs develops contributions to the theory of minimum wages while taking rationing and spill over effects on markets other than the labour market into account. Following an introduction into the theory of minimum wages and a discussion of methodological problems, four new theoretical models are developed, two of them comparative static in nature and two models of endogenous growth. The results are contradictory, partly supporting the textbook theory and partly yielding unorthodox results such as no change in the steady state rates of growth and employment.

Poverty Lines in Theory and Practice Martin Ravallion, 1998-01-01. A poverty line helps focus the attention of governments and civil society on the living conditions of the poor. This paper offers a critical overview of alternative approaches to setting poverty lines. In reviewing the methods found in practice, the paper tries to throw light on and go some way toward resolving ongoing debates about poverty measurement, emphasizing those debates which would appear to have greatest bearing on policy discussions.
