Zimmerman,2010-12-09 In Regulating the Business of Insurance in a Federal System Joseph F Zimmerman provides an up to date historical description and analysis of the regulation of the business of insurance in the United States He focuses on the controversial issue of whether Congress should authorize optional federal charters for insurance companies thereby establishing a dual charter system superficially similar to the dual banking system. Reviewing the evidence between federal and state level regulation of the financial securities industry, Zimmerman finds that federal regulation falls woefully short of its state counterpart. He concludes that the current system rather than the proposed dual insurance regulatory system is the most efficient and effective.
