influence of the West on these former states of the Ottoman Empire during the crucial hundred years between 1850 and 1950 Ways to Modernity in Greece and Turkey explores the reactions and coping mechanisms displayed in both societies in reaction to Europe's all pervasive influence Elites in both societies engaged in defensive modernization culminating in parallel attempts to mould their nations in line with the western blueprint The authors examine reforms in the legal regime the changing nature of family and gender relations and re engineered conceptions of space and the built environment They describe and analyse different aspects of the changes in the two societies over this period as they defined their practices and identities against Europe and often against each other Travel, Space, Architecture Miodrag Mitrasinovic, 2016-02-17 Travel Space Architecture defines a new theoretical territory in architectural and urban scholarship that frames the processes of spatial production through the notion of travel By aligning architectural thinking with current critical theory debates this book explores whether dissociating culture from place and identity and detaching the idea of architecture from both can reframe our understanding of spatial and architectural practices The book presents seventeen key case studies from a diverse range of perspectives including historical theoretical and praxis based and range from interrogations of architectural travel and notions of belonging and nationhood to challenging established geopolitical hierarchies Turkey's Engagement with Modernity C. Kerslake, K. Öktem, P. Robins, 2010-02-25 Turkey's Engagement with Modernity explores how the country has been shaped in the image of the Kemalist project of nationalist modernity and how it has transformed if erratically into a democratic society where tensions between religion state and society continue unabated Imagining the Turkish House Carel Bertram, 2013-05-01 Houses can become poetic expressions of longing for a lost past voices of a lived present and dreams of an ideal future Carel Bertram discovered this truth when she went to Turkey in the 1990s and began asking people about their memories of the Turkish house The fondness and nostalgia with which people recalled the distinctive wooden houses that were once ubiquitous throughout the Ottoman Empire made her realize that the Turkish house carries rich symbolic meaning In this delightfully readable book Bertram considers representations of the Turkish house in literature art and architecture to understand why the idea of the house has become such a potent signifier of Turkish identity Bertram's exploration of the Turkish house shows how this feature of Ottoman culture took on symbolic meaning in the Turkish imagination as Turkey became more Westernized and secular in the early decades of the twentieth century She shows how artists writers and architects all drew on the memory of the Turkish house as a space where changing notions of spirituality modernity and identity as well as the social roles of women and the family could be approached contested revised or embraced during this period of tumultuous change Architecture in Translation Esra Akcan, 2012-07-12 Esra Akcan describes the introduction of modern architecture into Turkey after the Kemalist political elite took power in 1923 and invited German architects to redesign the new capital of Ankara Europe's Islamic Legacy: 1900 to the Present, 2023-03-13 Seven new scholarly essays present original research that includes rare historical and photographic materials highlighting the significance of Islamic civilization and its vexed legacy in a variety of contemporary European countries and challenging the perception of European identity as exclusively Christian This volume unearths a rich complex history of relationships between Muslims and Christians in Europe whose value lies in the close and continued connections between them that began so long ago on European soil Modernism and the Middle East Sandy Isenstadt, Kishwar Rizvi, 2011-03-01 This provocative collection of essays is the first book length treatment of the development of modern architecture in the Middle East Ranging from Jerusalem at the turn of the twentieth century to Libya under Italian colonial rule postwar Turkey and on to present day Iraq the essays cohere around the historical encounter between the politics of nation building and architectural modernism's new materials methods and motives Architecture as physical infrastructure and as symbolic expression provides an exceptional window onto the powerful forces that shaped the modern Middle East and that continue to dominate it today Experts in this volume demonstrate the political dimensions of both creating the built environment and subsequently inhabiting it In revealing the tensions between achieving both international relevance and regional meaning Modernism in the Middle East affords a dynamic view of the ongoing confrontations of deep traditions with rapid modernization Political and cultural historians as well as architects and urban planners will find fresh material here on a range of diverse practices A Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture Finbarr Barry Flood, Gulru Necipoglu, 2017-06-16 The two volume Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture bridges the gap between monograph and survey text by providing a new level of access and interpretation to Islamic art The more than 50 newly commissioned essays revisit canonical topics and include original approaches and scholarship on neglected aspects of the field This two volume Companion showcases more than 50 specially commissioned essays and an introduction that survey Islamic art and architecture in all its traditional grandeur Essays are organized according to a new chronological geographical paradigm that remaps the unprecedented expansion of the field and reflects the nuances of major artistic and political developments during the 1400 year span The Companion represents recent developments in the field and encourages future horizons by commissioning innovative essays that provide fresh perspectives on canonical subjects such as early Islamic art sacred spaces palaces urbanism ornament arts of the book and the portable arts while introducing others that have been previously neglected including unexplored geographies and periods transregional connectivities talismans and magic consumption and networks of portability museums and collecting and contemporary art worlds the essays entail strong comparative and historiographic dimensions The volumes are accompanied by a map and each subsection is preceded by a brief outline of the main cultural and historical developments during the period in question The volumes include periods and regions typically excluded from survey books including modern and contemporary art architecture China Indonesia Sub Saharan Africa Sicily the New World Americas Is it Real? Structuring Reality by Means of Signs Zeynep Onur, İlhami Sığircı, Eero Tarasti, 2016-09-23 Is it Real is a collection of twenty eight papers on the most challenging provocative and profound topics related to the quest for real and virtual realities of vision and other senses and realities that are either constructed or imagined There was no school no theory no methodology nor any empirical approach in semiotics which was not forced to take a position whether implicitly or explicitly in attempting to discuss this issue Semiotics is a discipline dealing with signs and thus it is commonly thought that if we say of something that it is a sign then it is something less real than the thing itself to which it refers As such the field of problems which opens from the theme Is it Real is almost endless but also relevant This volume presents interactive dialogue related to this question structured under six different headings five papers on the topic of Visual Realities six on What is Real five on Textual Realities concentrating on realities revealed from literature or the written language through texts five on Constructed Realities three on Virtual Realities and finally four papers on Imagery Realities Proceedings of the ACSA Annual Meeting Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture,2000 Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean Jean-Francois Lejeune,Michelangelo Sabatino,2009-12-04 Considering the influence of the forms and tectonics of the Mediterranean vernacular on modern architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1960s Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R.
