Seeds Of Life Early Christian Martyrs:

Seeds of Life Gracewing,1998 Martyrs are the perfect disciples of Christ imitating him by sacrificing their lives Their example has always encouraged the faith of others Even today people are dying as martyrs for Christ This book tells of the very earliest martyrs in North Africa and of France from which most of these martyred monks came Includes Perpetua Felicitas Tertullian Cyprian and others The Life and Teaching of Pachomius Gracewing,1998 Pachomius was the founder of the first organized monasteries in Upper Egypt He was admired and many monasteries founded themselves based on his teachings and his way of ordering life within the monastery This collection includes some of his stories sermons and his rules for living in community Early Christian Martyr Stories Bryan M. Litfin,2014-09-30 Personal narratives are powerful instruments for teaching both for conveying information and for forming character The martyrdom accounts preserved in the literature of early Christianity are especially intense and dramatic However these narratives are not readily available and are often written in intimidating prose making them largely inaccessible for the average reader This introductory text brings together key early Christian martyrdom stories in a single volume offering new easy to read translations and expert commentary An introduction and explanatory notes accompany each translation The book not only provides a vivid window into the world of early Christianity but also offers spiritual encouragement and inspiration for Christian life today

Christian Martyrdom and Christian Violence Matthew D. Lundberg,2021-05-18 What is the place if any for violence in the Christian life At the core of Christian faith is an experience of suffering violence as the price for faithfulness of being victimized by the world s violence from Jesus himself to martyrs who have died while following him At the same time Christian history had also held the opinion that there are situations when the follower of Jesus may be justified in inflicting violence on others especially in the context of war Do these two facets of Christian ethics and experience present a contradiction Christian Martyrdom and Christian Violence On Suffering and Wielding the Sword explores the tension between Christianity s historic reverence for martyrdom suffering violence for faith and Christianity s historical support of a just war ethic involving the inflicting of violence While the book considers the possibility that the two are unreconcilable it also argues that they are ultimately compatible but their compatibility requires a more humanized portrait of the Christian martyr as well as a stricter approach to the justified use of violence The Life of Christ: Seed time. The first conflicts.

The crisis, chapters 1-2 Bernhard Weiss,1888 Christian Martyrdom and Political Violence Rubén Rosario Rodríguez,2017-07-13 This book examines the commonalities of Christianity Judaism and Islam and presents martyr narratives as a resource for resisting political violence Desiring God, Revised Edition John Piper,2011-01-18 Experience the Lifelong Pleasures of Knowing God Satisfaction Happiness Joy According to John Piper the pursuit of pleasure in God is not only permissible it s essential Desiring God is a paradigm shattering work that dramatically alters common perspectives on relating to God Piper reveals that there really is no need to choose between duty and delight in the Christian life In fact for the follower of Jesus delight is the duty as Christ is most magnified in His people when they are most satisfied in Him Constantly drawing on Scripture to build his case Piper shows why pursuing maximum joy is essential to glorifying God He discusses the implications of this for conversion worship love Scripture prayer money marriage missions and suffering Piper beckons us to approach God with the hedonist s abandon Finally we are freed to enjoy Jesus not only as our Lord and Savior but also as our all surpassing soul satisfying Treasure Desiring God may turn your Christian world upside down And that will be a good thing for the glory of God and for your deepest joy Includes a study guide for individual and small group use

The Future Life Joseph Casimir Sasia,1918 History of Religious Orders ... Together with a Brief History of the Catholic Church in Relation to Religious Orders Charles Warren Currier,1894 Life of the Venerable Gonalo Da Silveira of the Society of Jesus Hubert Chadwick,1910 The Congregationalist ,1925 Those for Whom the Lamp Shines Vince L. Bantu,2023-09-26 In Those for Whom the Lamp Shines Vince L Bantu uses the rich body of anti Chalcedonian literature to explore how the peoples of Egypt both inside and outside the Coptic Church came to understand their identity as Egyptians Working across a comparative spectrum of traditions and communities in late antiquity at the intersection of religious and other social forms of identity Bantu shows that it was the dissenting doctrines of the Coptic Church that played the crucial role in conceptualizing Egypt and being Egyptian Based on the study of neglected Coptic and Syriac texts Those for Whom the Lamp Shines offers the only sustained treatment of ethnic and religious self understanding in Africa s oldest Christian church Orthodox London: or, Phases of religious Life in the Church of England Ch. Maurice Davies,1874

Precious Enemy Toby Jennings,2017-04-17 King Solomon asserted love is as strong as death Song of Solomon 8 6 Solomon the wisest of all Israel s kings recognized that while every human would eventually succumb to death death is not ultimate in power The God whose essence is love designed and created both human life and death as instruments for the display of his own splendor and purposes Neither human life nor death then can deviate from God s ultimate purpose and good for the creature made in his own image Biblically death serves as the perfect foil to mark both the immeasurable value of human life and at the same time the relatively limited value of it Rather than either worshipping or desecrating this finite gift of human life we can value it rightly and also worship the God who in his literally infinite wisdom gives and takes away life in accord with his good and gracious purposes
