Seeds Of Destruction 1st Edition Ferrar Straus:

Thomas Merton Paul R Dekar, 2012-04-26 Thomas Merton was arguably the twentieth century's most widely published and widely read spiritual writer. This book explores Merton's prophetic writings and experience as they offer guidance for those seeking to experience God, to simplify their lives, to live more humanly, and to shape Christian community in the face of alienation, consumerism, noise, and technology. The book includes parts of three previously unpublished conference contributions by Merton on technology, exploring Merton's thoughts on monastic renewal, prayer, radical simplicity, ecology, technology, war, peace, and interfaith dialogue. Dekar reminds us why Merton was so influential and why he continues to be so.

Activism and the Literary Self in 20th and 21st-Century Literature Jeffrey F. Keuss, 2024-12-26 Exploring how Shusaku Endo, Ta Nehisi Coates, Thomas Merton, Marilynne Robinson, Cormac McCarthy, and Octavia E. Butler engage with social justice and activism, this book explores the significant role that literature plays in the formation of justice. Jeff Keuss foregrounds literature and the role of poetics as both a method and a frame by which justice can not only be understood but uniquely positioned to transform and redeem the moral call on individuals in ways that some recent philosophical and ethical projects do not. He examines how these authors are representative of a theme in literature which is the turn to justice as a literary form and discusses how these authors' engagement with activism challenges isolated and anxious models of contemporary selfhood. Demonstrating how these writers utilize fiction across different contexts of race, gender, culture, and theological denominations to present themes of justice in communion with others, Keuss provides new insights into communal selfhood and shows how we can use this idea to shape our ideas of ethics, morality, activism, and justice. and Seasons Thomas Merton, 2022-11-09 This critical edition makes available for the first time Thomas Merton's novitiate conferences on liturgy. Though dating from the period just before the liturgical reforms of Vatican II, Merton's commentaries remain pertinent for their insights on his own commitment to this central dimension of Christian life, on his work introducing students to the patterns that would mark their lives as monks, and on the perennial meaning of the key events of the liturgical year. The thoroughly annotated text is preceded by an extensive introduction situating this material in the context of Merton's lifelong writing on liturgy. As Merton's former student Br. Paul Quenon writes in his foreword: "Nowhere in all of Merton's writings can one find such an extended demonstration of the hermeneutical approach he took in commenting on Scripture. This was focused intensely on finding the meaning Scripture had for our life in God. These notes take us into one man's lifetime of reflection and seasoned experience of the Church Year." Sophia Christopher Pramuk, 2009-10-01 While numerous studies have celebrated Thomas Merton's witness as an interfaith pioneer, poet, and peacemaker, there have been few systematic treatments of his Christology, as such, and no sustained exploration to date of his relationship to the Russian Sophia tradition. This book looks to Thomas Merton as a classic theologian of the Christian tradition from East to West and offers an interpretation of his mature Christology with special attention to his remarkable prose poem of 1962, Hagia Sophia.

Bringing Merton's mystical prophetic Vision fully into dialogue with contemporary Christology Russian sophiology and Zen as well as figures such as John Henry Newman and Abraham Joshua Heschel the author carefully but boldly builds the case that Sophia the same theological eros that animated Merton's religious imagination in a period of tremendous fragmentation and violence might infuse new vitality into our own A study of uncommon depth and scope inspired throughout by Merton's extraordinary catholicity Christopher Pramuk PhD is assistant professor of theology at Xavier University in Cincinnati Ohio He is the author of two books and numerous essays and the recipient of the Catholic Theological Society of America's 2009 Catherine Mowry LaCugna Award
