

Sown Seeds

Once again I welcome the dream
After so many years of hiding
Daring to despair
Over my seeming affliction
At last understanding
That I ran
From my own intention
While callous clocks count
And heartless hands held
Evidence of imagined offense
Revealing at last
Love's grand design
