Seeing The Invisible Ordinary People Of Extraordinary Faith:

Seeing the Invisible Faith Cook, 1998 First appearing as articles in Evangelical Times Seeing the Invisible tells the stories of ten ordinary Christians who exercised extraordinary faith in their God None of these individuals is a famous name in Christian history but their faith in and devotion to Christ encourages and inspires us to exercise similar faith in the same powerful God who enabled them to endure as seeing him who is invisible The original articles have been expanded to include more background material and further details from the lives of these believers

Making Evangelical History Andrew Atherstone, David Ceri Jones, 2019-04-08 This volume makes a significant contribution to the history of ecclesiastical histories with a fresh analysis of historians of evangelicalism from the eighteenth century to the present It explores the ways in which their scholarly methods and theological agendas shaped their writings Each chapter presents a case study in evangelical historiography Some of the historians and biographers examined here were ministers and missionaries while others were university scholars They are drawn from Anglican Baptist Congregationalist Methodist Presbyterian Fundamentalist and Pentecostal denominations Their histories cover not only transatlantic evangelicalism but also the spread of the movement across China Africa and indeed the whole globe Some wrote for a popular Christian readership emphasising edification and evangelical hagiography others have produced weighty monographs for the academy These case studies shed light on the way the discipline has developed and also the heated controversies over whether one approach to evangelical history is more legitimate than the rest As a result this book will be of considerable interest to historians of religion

William L. Fibkins,2013-06-20

Providing individual and group counseling for secondary school students was once a major priority for secondary school counselors However many guidance programs have abandoned this role and counselors have become quasi administrators who spend most of their time scheduling students for classes managing mandated testing programs resolving discipline issues and advising students on college admissions Counseling students on personal and well being issues takes up a very small part of the time In many school districts social workers student assistance counselors and school psychologists have taken over the counseling duties Critical issues are now causing school leaders to consider reorganizing school guidance staff so there is a cadre of counselors trained and charged with the mission of providing individual and group counseling for troubled teens First the number of troubled teens arriving at the schoolhouse door looking for help has exploded Second budget cuts have eliminated or drastically curtailed many of the services of social workers student assistance counselors and psychologists The result Many once open doors for help are now closed and schools counseling services are failing many students parents and educators in need of intervention This book provides a new model in which well trained counselors can once again regain their historic role in counseling troubled teens parents and training staff and students on the front lines to act not look the other way when they observe a student heading towards the margins of school life The Church School Herald-journal ,1996
