Seeing Through The Media:

Seeing Through the Media Susan Jeffords, Lauren Rabinovitz, 1994 An eye opening look at the effect of the media on public perception of The Persian Gulf War Music, Electronic Media and Culture Simon Emmerson, 2016-04-29 Technology revolutionised the ways that music was produced in the twentieth century As that century drew to a close and a new century begins a new revolution in roles is underway The separate categories of composer performer distributor and listener are being challenged while the sounds of the world itself become available for musical use All kinds of sounds are now brought into the remit of composition enabling the music of others to be sampled or plundered including that of unwitting musicians from non western cultures This sound world may appear contradictory stimulating and invigorating as well as exploitative and destructive This book addresses some of the issues now posed by the brave new world of music produced with technology Media & Performance Johannes H. Birringer, 1998 The author discusses the performance aspects of such political events as the breaching of the Berlin wall and the destruction of Sarajevo and examines the use of video and agitprop performance in political activity including protests by the gay activist group ACT UP and the disquieting performances of the former pornography actress and sex worker Annie Sprinkle Birringer ends with a discussion of the continuing incursions of business into digital media including the imperialism of technological enhancements as experienced in the culture of constant upgrades and the omnipresence of Bill Gates AIDS TV Alexandra Juhasz, Catherine Gund, 1995 Camcorder AIDS activism is a prime example of a new form of political expression an outburst of committed low budget community produced political video work made possible by new accessible technologies As Alexandra Juhasz looks at this phenomenon why and how video has become the medium for so much AIDS activism she also tries to make sense of the bigger picture How is this work different from mainstream television How does it alter what we think of the media s form and function The result is an eloquent and vital assessment of the role media activism plays in the development of community identity and self empowerment An AIDS videomaker herself Juhasz writes from the standpoint of an AIDS activist and blends feminist film critique with her own experience She offers a detailed description of alternative AIDS video including her own work on the Women s AIDS Video Enterprise WAVE Along with WAVE Juhasz discusses amateur video tapes of ACT UP demonstrations safer sex videos produced by Gay Men s Health Crisis public access programming and PBS documentaries as well as network television productions From its close up look at camcorder AIDS activism to its critical account of mainstream representations AIDS TV offers a better understanding of the media politics identity and community in the face of AIDS It will challenge and encourage those who hope to change the course of this crisis both in the real world and in the world of representation A Companion to Media Studies Angharad N. Valdivia, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Media Studies is a comprehensive collection that brings together new writings by an international team to provide an overview of the theories and methodologies that have produced this most interdisciplinary of fields Tackles a variety of central concepts and controversies organized into six areas of study foundations production media content media audiences effects and futures Provides an accessible point of entry into this expansive and interdisciplinary field Includes the writings of renowned media scholars including McQuail Schiller Gallagher Wartella and Bryant Now available in paperback for the course market

Alternative Media in Canada

Kirsten Kozolanka, Patricia Mazepa, David Skinner, 2012-04-01 Alternative media hold the promise of building public awareness and action against the constraints and limitations of media conglomeration and cutbacks to public broadcasting But what exactly makes alternative media alternative This path breaking volume gets to the heart of this question by focusing on the three interconnected dimensions that define alternative media in Canada structure participation and activism The contributors reveal not only how various kinds of alternative media including indigenous anarchist ethnic and feminist media are enabled and constrained within Canada's complex policy environment but also how in the context of globalization the Canadian experience parallels media and policy challenges in other nations

Exploring the Collective Unconscious in the Age of Digital Media Schafer, Stephen Brock, 2016-01-28 For decades we have witnessed the emergence of a media age of illusion that is based on the principles of physics the multidimensionality immateriality and non locality of the unified field of energy and information as a virtual reality As a result a new paradigm shift has reframed the cognitive unconscious of individuals and collectives and generated a worldview in which mediated illusion prevails Exploring the Collective Unconscious in a Digital Age investigates the cognitive significance of an altered mediated reality that appears to have all the dimensions of a dreamscape This book presents the idea that if the digital media sphere proves to be structurally and functionally analogous to a dreamscape the Collective Unconscious researched by Carl Jung and the Cognitive Unconscious researched by George Lakoff are susceptible to research according to the parameters of hard science This pivotal research based publication is ideally designed for use by psychologists theorists researchers and graduate level students studying human cognition and the influence of the digital media revolution

The Screen Media Reader Stephen Monteiro, 2017-01-12 As mobile communication social media wireless networks and flexible user interfaces become prominent topics in the study of media and culture the screen emerges as a critical research area This reader brings together insightful and influential texts from a variety of sources theorists researchers critics inventors and artists that explore the screen as a fundamental element not only in popular culture but also in our very understanding of society and the world The Screen Media Reader is a foundational resource for studying the screen and its cultural impact Through key contemporary and historical texts addressing the screen's development and role in communications and the social sphere it considers how the screen functions as an idea an object and an everyday experience Reflecting a number of descriptive and analytical approaches these essays illustrate the astonishing range and depth of the screen's introduction and application in multiple media configurations and contexts Together they demonstrate the long standing influence of the screen as a cultural concept and communication tool that extends well beyond contemporary debates over screen saturation and addiction

Deceitful Media Simone Natale, 2021 Artificial intelligence AI is often discussed as something extraordinary a dream or a nightmare that awakens metaphysical questions on human life Yet far from a distant technology of the future the true power of AI lies in its subtle revolution of ordinary life From voice assistants like Siri to natural language processors AI technologies use cultural biases and modern psychology to fit specific characteristics of how users perceive and navigate the external world thereby projecting the illusion of intelligence Integrating media studies science and technology studies and social psychology Deceitful Media examines the rise of artificial intelligence throughout history and exposes the very human fallacies behind this technology Focusing specifically on communicative AIs Natale argues that what we call AI is not a form of intelligence but rather a reflection of the human user Using the term banal deception he reveals that deception forms the basis of all human computer interactions rooted in AI technologies as technologies like voice assistants utilize the dynamics of projection and stereotyping as a means for aligning with our existing habits and social conventions By exploiting the human instinct to connect AI reveals our collective vulnerabilities to deception showing that what machines are primarily changing is not other technology but ourselves as humans Deceitful Media illustrates how AI has continued a tradition of technologies that mobilize our liability to deception and shows that only by better understanding our vulnerabilities to deception can we become more sophisticated consumers of interactive media

Herrmann the Great - A Journey through Media Michael Cantor, 2015-04-22 Lithe of build graceful of tongue and carriage dark piercing eyes and facial features cast from a prince of the underworld Alexander Herrmann embodied the word magician His persona permeated the popular culture of his day and his image still holds power in our present societal subconscious as the archetypal conjurer A mesmeric personality both on and off the stage he was ever the theatrical magician ever the exhibitor of his craft The book is intended to be a journey of Herrmann through the lens of his audience as projected through the newsprint of the day It does not seek to delve behind the scenes but to hopefully paint a picture on the canvas of the goal of his craft mystifying vast audiences of theatrical patrons A fascinating progression of Herrmann's art and influence as well as a glimpse of the ubiquitous theater and its value in bygone American culture

Deconstructing Images of the Global South Through Media Representations and Communication Endong, Floribert Patrick C.,2019-12-06 The human condition has continued to improve phenomenally in today's world with the development of technology and medicine This includes developing countries in areas such as Africa Asia and South America Despite the emergence of economy education and infrastructure in these regions media outlets continue to forego their advancements in favor of the negativities that plague these states such as poverty hunger and corruption There is a need to research international media portrayals of the less developed world to ascertain the myth that these areas are still struggling Deconstructing Images of the Global South Through Media Representations and Communication provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of how global media analyzes developing countries Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as cultural affirmation online platforms and audience perception this book is ideally designed for communications specialists journalists broadcasters newscasters conflict photographers media practitioners policymakers international relation experts column writers editors students politicians government officials researchers and academicians seeking current research on the world's perception of developing countries through media coverage

Classics and Media Theory Pantelis Michelakis,2020 Introducing a largely neglected area of existing interactions between Greco Roman antiquity and media theory this volume brings together a range of interdisciplinary studies to address the question of why interactions in this area matter and how they might be developed further

Predictive Technology in Social Media Cristina Fernández-Rovira,Santiago Giraldo-Luque,2022-07-07 Can behaviour on social media predict future purchase patterns Can what we click on social media foresee which political party will we vote for Can the information we share on our wall foretell the next series I might want to watch Can the likes on Instagram and Facebook predict the time one will spend on digital platforms in the next hour The answer is no longer science fiction It points to the ability of mainstream social media platforms such as Facebook and Twitter to be able to deliver specialised advertising services to highly targeted audience segments controlled by the billions of devices that flood our daily lives At the same time it highlights a more relevant problem can social media guide suggest or impose a certain behaviour or thought Everything seems to indicate that they can do it Predictive Technology in Social Media comprises 10 essays that reflect on the power of the predictive technology of social media in culture entertainment marketing economics and politics It shows from a humanistic and critical perspective the predictive possibilities of social media platforms as well as the risks this entails for cultural plurality everyday consumption the monopolistic concentration of the economy and attention and democracy The text is an invitation to think as citizens about the unbridled power we have ceded to digital platforms A new voice to warn about the greatest concentration of communicative power ever seen in the history of humanity

Baudelaire's Media Aesthetics Marit Grøtta, 2015-04-23 Baudelaire s Media Aesthetics situates Charles Baudelaire in the midst of 19th century media culture It offers a thorough study of the role of newspapers photography and precinematic devices in Baudelaire s writings while also discussing the cultural history of these media generally The book reveals that Baudelaire was not merely inspired by the new media but that he played with them using them as frames of perception and ways of experiencing the world His writings demonstrate how different media respond to one another and how the conventions of one medium can be paraphrased in another medium Accordingly Baudelaire s Media Aesthetics argues that Baudelaire should be seen merely as an advocate of pure poetry but as a poet in a media saturated environment It shows that mediation montage and movement are features that are central to Baudelaire s aesthetics and that his modernist aesthetics can be conceived of to a large degree as a media aesthetics Highlighting Baudelaire s interaction with the media of his age

Baudelaire's Media Aesthetics discusses the ways in which we respond to new media technology drawing on perspectives from Walter Benjamin and Giorgio Agamben. Combining detailed research with contemporary theory the book opens up new perspectives on Baudelaire's writings the figure of the flâneur and modernist aesthetics. Semiotics of the Media Winfried Nöth, 1997. No detailed description available for Semiotics of the Media. The Charismatic Gymnasium Maria José de Abreu, 2021-01-15. In The Charismatic Gymnasium Maria José de Abreu examines how Charismatic Catholicism in contemporary Brazil produces a new form of total power through a concatenation of the breathing body theology and electronic mass media. De Abreu documents a vast religious respiratory program of revival popularly branded as the aerobics of Jesus. Pneuma the Greek term for air breath and spirit is central to this aerobic program whose goal is to labor on the athletic elasticity of spirit. Tracing the rhetoric gestures and spaces that together constitute this new theological community de Abreu exposes the articulating forces among evangelical Christianity neoliberal logics and the rise of right wing politics. By calling attention to how an ethics of pauperism vitally intersects with the neoliberal ethos of flexibility de Abreu shows how paradoxes do not hinder but expand the Charismatic gymnasium. The result de Abreu demonstrates is the production of a fluid form of totalitarianism and Christianity in Brazil and beyond.
