Like Yesterday Kristi Farley, 2011-09-20. What do you do with the rest of your life when your reason for living doesn't exist anymore? Aaliah Carye is a girl that was the perfect example of content, a high school senior at Providence High in Providence, Rhode Island, hiding behind her books and looking for love in novels instead of opening her eyes to the real world until she met Garrett Blake, who opens her eyes to not only the real world but to a dream that she can not believe is reality. Everything that she thought she wanted changes; she starts to find out that there is more to her than she ever thought and that she does not have to run to a fairy tale to find love anymore until everything falls apart. Garrett moves back to Providence to get his depressed mother away from Boston, the city that she hates, after his father's death. His little sister Sandy and he try to live a normal life and try to keep their mother from killing herself. When he finds Aaliah, he realizes that he can find happiness in his crazy world, but a mistake he makes turns everything upside down. Trying to live two separate lives away from their reasons for living causes both of them to go crazy, but they have to let each other go. Even if it does mean that they will never be happy until they are together again.

Faith and Passion Geoffrey Hill, 2024-08-15. The reader will find a collection of devotional style poems written by a hospital employee during the COVID period. Collections are divided into categories to help the reader develop a basic understanding of theology, morality, and an understanding of how to read the Bible devotionally Emphasis is placed on the relationship between faith and passion in how our relationship with God shapes our personal relationships because these relationships are internal and not merely external experiences An emphasis is placed on developing a devotional understanding of Scripture as the living God will address issues and concerns we face in our daily lives These interactions with Scripture give us an understanding of God and encouragement to handle daily struggles A primary purpose of publishing the text is to bridge the gap between being a Christian and that of being gay There is no internal conflict outside of idolatry and true moral character However evident within the church today there are deep struggles These may turn the gay Christian away from the faith and away from real moral character Today the exclusion of single people in the church is experienced in quiet isolation and even in public doctrine There is no justification for exclusion A Christian cannot remove compassion from faith in the name of doctrine because faith is internal
