Sefer Ha-Hinnuch ,1989-07-01 The Art of Education Rabbi Yitzchak Ginsburgh,2005 With so much information readily available today the educators role must go beyond simply transferring knowledge to students Drawing from the deep wisdom found in the classic teachings and stories of Kabbalah and Chassidut The Art of Education focuses the educator on creating a lasting impression on students by opening their spirits to their own higher realms of consciousness and by helping them integrate newly found energy will and insights into everyday life The Art of Education surveys the seven skills of the accomplished educator communication self criticism recognition flexibility attention to details prioritization and the correct use of reward and punishment Together these seven skills form a Kabbalistic structural model that when properly understood functions like a neurological key unlocking the inner educator in each of us Jewish Education Ari Y Kelman,2024-05-17 Jewish education has been dominated by two concerns What ought to be taught And what is the best way to teach it This book upends the conventional approaches by asking a different question How do people learn to engage in Jewish life

Judaism and Global Survival Richard Schwartz, 2023-08-15 Judaism and Global Survival discusses the challenges facing humanity and the Jewish teachings related to these challenges in order to galvanize Jews to help repair the world tikkun olam as required by Jewish law. It argues that we don't need to discover new values and approaches to address current global threats. What is needed is a rediscovery and application of basic Jewish teachings and mandates such as to pursue peace and justice to love our neighbors as ourselves and to act as co-workers with God in protecting and preserving the world. Judaism and Global Survival is meant to be a wake up call the strongest that one can make on the urgency of addressing climate threats and other environmental threats and the importance of Jews applying Jewish values in addressing these threats. Among the issues discussed in the book are the following: Jews are to guardians of the earth, partners and co-workers with God in working toward tikkun olam, the healing, repair and proper transforming of the world. Climate change is an existential threat to the world and the only hope to avert a climate catastrophe is through a major shift to plant-based diets as that would enable reforestation of the vast areas now used for animal agriculture, reducing atmospheric CO2 to a much safer level. Vegetarianism and even more so, veganism is the diet most consistent with Jewish teachings on preserving our health, treating animals with compassion, protecting the environment, conserving natural resources and helping hungry people.

Redemption and Restoration David Matzko McCarthy, Vicki Schieber, Trudy D. Conway, 2017-11-15 The Catholic Church teaches that punishment must have a constructive and redemptive purpose and that it be coupled with treatment and when possible, restitution. Rehabilitation and restoration must include the spiritual dimension of healing and hope. Since the publication of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' 2000 pastoral statement on restorative justice, the conversation surrounding the need for criminal justice reform and restorative justice has moved forward. Redemption and Restoration responds from a Catholic perspective to help form an educational campaign to equip Catholics and their leaders to participate in the national conversation on this issue, create the programs needed to assist in healing the harm caused by crime and restore our communities. The book develops the traditional Catholic understanding of justice, offers a theological understanding of restorative justice, explains how it can be implemented and reflects on the practical arguments for restorative justice. Grounded in the stories of real people, Redemption and Restoration helps readers gain a deeper understanding of how this affects us all as a country and a church. It includes discussion questions to engage groups in exploring issues related to restorative justice.
