Portrait of a Moral Agent Teacher Gillian R. Rosenberg,2015-06-05 Teaching morally and teaching morality are understood as mutually dependent processes necessary for providing moral education or the communication of messages and lessons on what is right good and virtuous in a student s character This comprehensive and contextualized volume offers anecdotes and experiences on how an elementary schoolteacher envisions enacts and reflects on the ethical teaching and learning of her students By employing a personally developed form of moral education that is not defined by any particular philosophical or theoretical orientation this volume relates that classroom based moral education can therefore be conceived of and promoted as moral agency Accentuated by the teacher s voice to offer the experience of being in the classroom this volume enables others to transfer relevant practices to their own teaching contexts
