Selected Czech Tales, Translated by Marie Busch and Otto Pick ,1928 A World Apart and Other Stories Kathleen Hayes,2022-12-01 It grew dark and a mist spread over the countryside like a curtain We were at the Bohemian border Customs control shouting the din of the station and finally the train moved on with a monotonous drone It was right here that I met Teresa Elinson Marta said in the corner of the cozy compartment I replied Who is Teresa Elinson I don t remember you ever mentioning her No never It was a kind of adventure That time too the train hurtled into the dark where red sparks flew and lights flashed scattering in the mist Thus begins the story by R ena Jesensk that gives this book its name In this anthology Kathleen Hayes has selected and translated eight stories by Czech female authors at the turn of the 19th and 20th century a period of female political emancipation and impressive literary development All of the writers included in the present volume were recognized in their own day and constitute a cross section of the literary styles of the period Tilschov s A Sad Time is written in a Naturalist style Jesensk s A World Apart presents themes and motifs that appealed to the Decadents Mal ov s The Sylph is both diaristic and satirical while Svobodov s ironical A Great Passion with its rural setting and folklore motifs reminds one of the writings of Karel Jarom r Erben Preisso v s short story may be read as a celebration of folk culture Bene ov s Friends is interesting for its psychological presentation of a child s point of view and its implicit criticism of anti-Semitism The book is accompanied by the biographies of each author and an introduction by Kathleen Hayes
