With the coming of motion pictures Arthur was destined to hit the screen. This edition of Cinema Arthuriana revised in 2002 presents 20 essays on the topic of the recurring presence of the legend in film and television from 1904 to 2001. They cover such films as Excalibur 1981 and Monty Python and the Holy Grail 1975 television productions such as The Mists of Avalon 2001 and French and German films about the quest for the Holy Grail and the other adventures of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table. Movie Acting, the Film Reader Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2004. Combining classic and recent essays and examining key issues such as Movie Acting, the Film Reader explores one of the most central but often overlooked aspects of cinema film acting. The Birth of Whiteness Daniel Bernardi, 1996. As indelible components of the history of the United States race and racism have permeated nearly all aspects of life cultural economic political and social. In this first anthology on race in early cinema fourteen scholars examine the origins dynamics and ramifications of racism and Eurocentrism and the resistance to both during the early years of American motion pictures. Any discussion of racial themes and practices in any arena inevitably begins with the definition of race. Is race an innate and biologically determined essence or is it a culturally constructed category? Is the question irrelevant? Perhaps race exists as an ever changing historical and social formation that regardless of any standard definition involves exploitation degradation and struggle. In his introduction Daniel Bernardi writes that early cinema has been a clear partner in the hegemonic struggle over the meaning of race and that it was steadfastly aligned with a Eurocentric world view at the expense of those who didn't count as white. The contributors to this work tackle these problems and address such subjects as biological determinism miscegenation Manifest Destiny assimilation and nativism and their impact on early cinema. Analyses of The Birth of a Nation Romona Nanook of the North and Madame Butterfly and the directorial styles of D.W. Griffith Oscar Micheaux and Edwin Porter are included in the volume. Arthurian Interpretations, 1989.
