Service At The Heart Of Learning Teachers Writings:

Service at the Heart of Learning Emily Cousins, Amy Mednick, 1999 One of the few books on service learning written by K 12 teachers the volume explores the role of service in learning expeditions With vivid detail and stories from the classroom teachers discuss the way service deepens students academic achievement and character development Eighteen expeditions are organized into two sections Science Humanities Using Experiential Learning in the Classroom Scott D.

Wurdinger, 2005-04-13 While research and common sense tells us that experiential learning is more effective than the more traditional process of information assimilation where teachers lecture test and grade high school college and university teachers continue to use paper and pencil tests as their primary grading and assessment tool Many students fail to see the relevance of these sort of tests and are bored with passive methods of learning Using Experiential Learning in the Classroom Practical Ideas for All Educators explains what experiential learning is why it works and how it can be used in both high school and post secondary educational settings Tools for assessing experiential learning are also provided A must have resource for high school teachers and college professors The Heart and Science of Teaching C. Bobbi Hansen, 2019

Blending the latest research in education neuroscience and cognitive psychology this resource will help K 12 teachers create emotionally supportive classroom environments Sections ground teachers in three interlocking aspects of instruction The Heart of Teaching social emotional learning SEL The Science of Teaching evidence based instructional practices and Tools for the 21st Century project based learning and digital technologies Book Features Explores the transformative power of SEL on student learning and well being Illustrates how teacher feedback can assist students in developing a growth mindset Brings voices of real teachers in each chapter who share their application of the chapter s ideas and their positive results with their students Lists targeted book website and video resources in each chapter with more examples and information to support teachers implementation Examines the implications of current research in neuroscience for classroom teaching Describes evidence based models of teaching and how they positively affect student engagement and learning Shows how to support project based and other student led learning while connecting to standards Describes how to use blogs podcasts and an array of web tools to promote engaged learning Teachers and teacher educators looking to up their teaching EQ and IQ will love the accessibility organization and depth of this timely book Paul M Rogers George Mason University Hansen reminds us of the real aims of education students who love learning and who have learned throughout their lifetime guided by teachers who care for their emotional and cognitive well being Kathleen Puckett Arizona State University Resources in Education , 2001 Personalized Learning Denise Wolk, 2003 Written by practitioners with practical interest in moving high schools toward personalization this book will excite others to initiate reforms that enable ALL young adult learners to meet common standards while designing and pursuing a unique pathway toward adult roles That s what personal learning and this book are all about The Heart of Wisdom Teaching Approach Robin Sampson, 2005-04 Details the Bible based homeschool teaching approach for parents and discusses Christian education learning styles unit studies bible study and more

Putting Social Justice and Equity at the Heart of Reading for Pleasure Jane Carter, 2025-03-31 This essential book discusses what reading for pleasure is and what it is not introducing some fundamental ideas about how we learn to read and how this process can impact a child's identity as a reader in classrooms that promote equality inclusion and diversity The profile and importance of Reading for Pleasure has grown significantly over the last few years and is now firmly embedded in both government policy and the Ofsted framework Developing a Reading for Pleasure school that is truly inclusive of the whole school community however can require a culture shift in relation to the teaching of reading representation in the reading environment and the knowledge and attitudes of the school community This book seeks to use the current research teacher case studies and the voices of children to address some of the issues that teachers and pre service teachers encounter when trying to develop an inclusive Reading for Pleasure culture within their schools Each chapter is co authored by teachers and researchers and includes case studies and children's perspectives It provides practical and evidence based advice lesson ideas and creative ideas to both support and challenge all school leaders staff and student teachers in their journey to create readers rather than children that can just read

The Heart and Mind in Teaching Alyssa Magee Lowery, William Hayes, 2014-07-30 The Heart and Mind in Teaching Pedagogical Styles Through the Ages provides an important historical context for an issue confronting every American teacher administrator student parent and citizen As the art of teaching is rapidly replaced by formulas clinical studies and one size fits all scientific pedagogy it is important to ask the question How did we get here Authors Alyssa Magee Lowery and William Hayes trace the history of teaching from Greek philosophy to twenty first century educational issues in an effort to provide some perspective in the long art versus science debate ultimately finding that the two components may be able to coexist peacefully
