Leading the Congregation Roger Heuser, Norman Shawchuck, 2010 A complete and definitive guide to the practice of church leadership newly revised

Stupid, Ugly, Unlucky and RICH Richard St John, 2005 Have you ever wondered what leads to success Do you just need to be smart great looking or lucky Richard St John says those things don't lead to success And he should know He spent 10 years interviewing over 500 successful people from Martha Stewart to actor Russell Crowe to DNA discoverer James Watson to the top people in many fields After analyzing and sorting all the information Richard discovered the top 8 factors that are the foundation for success in any field He also discovered that many successful people aren't especially smart good looking or lucky They're ordinary people without special gifts who achieve success by following the 8 factors Richard himself is a good example He says I could never figure out how an ordinary guy like me succeeded in business won top awards and became a millionaire So I started a project to ask other people what led to their success and it grew into a 10 year journey of discovery The story is in Richard's new book Stupid Ugly Unlucky and RICH Spikes Guide to Success an easy to read analysis that gets beyond the clichés to distill what the world's most successful people really do have in common

Ministry of the Towel Dr T. Cedric Brown, 2017-08-26 In the 13th chapter of John Jesus is having supper with his disciples This is their final meal together before He is crucified Jesus could have said so many things during this last supper What would be His parting words

What life principle did He want to leave with them Since this was the last supper we can suppose that whatever He prepared to say whatever principle He wanted to share would be significant Important Life changing Out of the many things Jesus could have taught He chose to talk about serving one another Jesus stated that He did not come to be ministered to or to be served but He came to serve He personified servanthood through countless acts of grace and mercy in the community He taught healed the sick restored sight to the blind raised the dead and fed over five thousand people But His ultimate act of serving occurred when He sacrificed His life on the cross for all mankind Regardless of the area of ministry God has called everyone to serve This book is a tool to help sharpen your skills as a servant in the Body of Christ as well as an executive in the business sector Whether your area of serving is administration music preaching outreach media diaconate adjutancy armor bearing or one of the many positions in the corporate world it does not matter The principles outlined in these pages will provide fresh insight and inspire you to improve your serving in your home church community and workplace

Practicing Hospitality Pat Ennis, Lisa Tatlock, 2008-01-03 What makes a person or a home hospitable Does hospitality call for a beautifully decorated home and a menu filled with gourmet foods or can it be as simple as offering a friend a cup of tea In Practicing Hospitality two longtime professors and practitioners of home economics provide both the theological base and the practical knowledge to understand and implement God's plan for hospitality They provide a blend of theologically sound content real life illustrations and practical application They focus on developing both the Christian character and practical skills so the act of hospitality is a joy for the host and hostess and a source of encouragement for the guest Each chapter concludes with recipes and projects that provide readers with an opportunity to personally apply the book's content Anyone seeking to grow in their knowledge of biblical hospitality will be richly rewarded by the biblical teaching and practical suggestions in this book Junior Steps in RE. Michael Keene, Jan Keene, 1997 Aiming to meet the key demands of the SCAA model syllabi and LEA agreed syllabi this series covers the educational and legal requirements for RE teaching The pupils' books contain information discussion material and activities and each double page spread provides two half hour lessons per week Suggestions for further work are included in the photocopiable teacher's books of which this is the third
