Serving With The Poor In Africa Cases In Holistic Ministry Cases In Holistic Ministry:

Walking with the Poor Bryant L. Myers, 2011 In this revised and updated edition of a modern classic Bryant Myers shows how Christian mission can contribute to dismantling poverty and social evil Myers demonstrates what is possible when we cease to treat the spiritual and physical domains of life as separate and unrelated Serving with the Poor in Africa Tetsunao Yamamori, 1998 Holistic Mission Brian Woolnough, Wonsuk Ma, 2011-01-01 Holistic mission or integral mission implies God is concerned with the whole person the whole community body mind and spirit Many Christians concentrate only on one aspect This book reaffirms that to be true to the Bible to follow the example of Jesus the church must address the whole person in all their needs It considers the meaning of the holistic gospel how it has developed and implications for the individual Christian for the local church for denominations and church groups for missionary societies for Christian NGOs and for theological training institutions It takes a global eclectic approach with 19 writers church leaders academics and practitioners all of whom have much experience in and commitment to holistic mission It addresses critically and honestly one of the most exciting challenging and important issues facing the church today To be part of God's plan for God's people the church must take holistic mission to the world Perspectives on the World Christian Movement (4th Edition) Ralph D. Winter, Steven C. Hawthorne, 2009-06-01 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement presents a multifaceted collection of readings exploring the biblical historical cultural and strategic dimensions of world evangelization Writings from more than 150 mission scholars and practitioners over 60 of them new to this edition portray the history and anticipate the potential of the global Christian movement Every one of the 170 articles and side bars offers practical wisdom enabling Christians to labor together in bold biblical hope to finish the task of seeing that Christ is named and followed among all the peoples of the earth The Fourth Edition contains over 60 articles and sidebars that are new to this edition Many articles have been updated and revised Missions in Southeast Asia Kiem-Kiok Kwa, Samuel Ka-Chieng Law, 2022-09-26 As the boundaries between cultures and religions blur in an increasingly globalized world the church finds itself in need of new approaches to understanding and embracing otherness both inside and outside of its established communities Southeast Asia has long been one of the world's most diverse regions with over a hundred ethnicities represented and members of every major religion living as neighbors In this rich and complex environment the church has an equally rich and complex history at times flourishing at times floundering but inexorably taking root In this collection of essays contributors from throughout the region reflect on the history and future of Christianity in Southeast Asia providing an overview of missions in the region and exploring how local churches are defining a uniquely Southeast Asian approach to interreligious engagement Combining missiological research with contextual theology this volume offers profound insight into the challenges accompanying missions in a multireligious environment From ethnic and religious conflict resolution to navigating hybrid identities this collection of essays makes an excellent contribution to global conversations surrounding the Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba, 2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph.D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people. The author develops his proposed motif around a tri-dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari: mwanzo, sasa, and mwisho, which provide keys to the African mindset. He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective. In addition to the literal safari, journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively. The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in the future. Inspired by both John Mbiti's The African Concept of Time and Paul Hiebert's The Flaw of the Excluded Middle, the author utilizes biblical, theological, historical, and contextual sources to make his point. In the philosophical aspect of the safari, the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea, which he relates to the development of theology and mission. He refutes the Western-influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunt or tourist expedition to Africa. Dr. Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations. He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustine's City of God, John Bunyan's The Pilgrim's Progress, and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging. The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message. Its practical appeal makes Safari-Based Theology a must-read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith. The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset, conception of divine truth, and aspirations of the Greek mind, the concept of safari does the same for the African. This book is highly recommended for pastors, missionaries, and teachers, as well as students of Bible and theology, culture, and missions and other related disciplines.
