Settlement Of The Americas A New Prehistory:

The Settlement Of The Americas A New Prehistory Tom D. Dillehay, 2000-05-04 That new view says Dillehay will come mainly from South America from South American sites and from freedom from the North American dogma that kept the Clovis theory dominant for so many years

A History of Architecture and Urbanism in the Americas Clare Cardinal-Pett, 2015-11-19 A History of Architecture and Urbanism in the Americas is the first comprehensive survey to narrate the urbanization of the Western Hemisphere from the Arctic Circle to Antarctica making it a vital resource to help you understand the built environment in this part of the world The book combines the latest scholarship about the indigenous past with an environmental history approach covering issues of climate geology and biology so that you ll see the relationship between urban and rural in a new more inclusive way Author Clare Cardinal Pett tells the story chronologically from the earliest known human migrations into the Americas to the 1930s to reveal information and insights that weave across time and place so that you can develop a complex and nuanced understanding of human made landscape forms patterns of urbanization and associated building typologies Each chapter addresses developments throughout the hemisphere and includes information from various disciplines original artwork and historical photographs of everyday life which along with numerous maps diagrams and traditional building photographs will train your eye to see the built environment as you read about it

Religion in the Lands That Became America Thomas A. Tweed, 2025-05-13 A sweeping retelling of American religious history showing how religion has enhanced and hindered human flourishing from the Ice Age to the Information Age Until now the standard narrative of American religious history has begun with English settlers in Jamestown or Plymouth and remained predominantly Protestant and Atlantic Driven by his strong sense of the historical and moral shortcomings of the usual story Thomas A Tweed offers a very different narrative in this ambitious new history He begins the story much earlier 11 000 years ago at a rock shelter in present day Texas and follows Indigenous Peoples African Americans transnational migrants and people of many faiths as they transform the landscape and confront the big lifeway transitions from foraging to farming and from factories to fiber optics Setting aside the familiar narrative themes he highlights sustainability showing how religion both promoted and inhibited individual communal and environmental flourishing during three sustainability crises the medieval Cornfield Crisis which destabilized Indigenous ceremonial centers the Colonial Crisis which began with the displacement of Indigenous Peoples and the enslavement of Africans and the Industrial Crisis which brought social inequity and environmental degradation The unresolved Colonial and Industrial Crises continue to haunt the nation Tweed suggests but he recovers historical sources of hope as he retells the rich story of America s religious past

The Island Chumash Douglas J. Kennett, 2005-04-04 Colonized as early as 13 500 years ago the Northern Channel Islands of California offer some of the earliest evidence of human habitation along the west coast of North America The Chumash people who lived on these islands are considered to be among the most socially and politically complex hunter gatherers in the world

This book provides a powerful and innovative synthesis of the cultural and environmental history of the chain of islands Douglas J Kennett shows that the trends in cultural elaboration were in part set into motion by a series of dramatic environmental events that were the catalyst for the unprecedented social and political complexity observed historically

A Population History of the United States Herbert S. Klein, 2004-03-22 This is the first full scale one volume survey of the demographic history of the United States From the arrival of humans in the Western Hemisphere to the current century Klein analyzes the basic demographic trends in the growth of the pre conquest colonial and national populations He surveys the origin and distribution of the Native Americans the post conquest free and servile European and African colonial populations and the variation in regional patterns of fertility and mortality to 1800 He then explores trends in births deaths international and internal migrations in the nineteenth century and compares them with contemporary European developments The profound impact of historic declines in disease and mortality on the structure of the late twentieth century population is explained Finally the late twentieth century changes in family structure fertility and mortality are evaluated for their influence on the evolution of the national population for the 21st century

Economic Zooarchaeology Peter Rowley-Conwy, Dale Serjeantson, Paul Halstead, 2017-05-31 Economic archaeology is the study of how past peoples exploited animals and plants using as evidence the remains of those animals and plants The animal side is usually termed zooarchaeology the plant side archaeobotany What distinguishes them from other studies of ancient animals and plants is that their ultimate aim is to find out about human behaviour the animal and plant remains are a means to this end The 33 papers present a wide array of topics covering many areas of archaeological interest Aspects of method and theory animal bone identification human palaeopathology prehistoric animal utilisation in South America and the study of dog cemeteries are covered The long running controversy over the milking of animals and the use of dairy products by humans is discussed as is the ecological impact of hunting by farmers with studies from Serbia and Syria For Britain coverage extends from Mesolithic Star Carr via the origins of agriculture and the farmers of Lismore Fields through considerations of the Neolithic and Bronze Age Outside Britain papers discuss Neolithic subsistence in Cyprus and Croatia Iron Age society in Spain Medieval and post medieval animal utilisation in northern Russia and the claimed finding of a modern red deer skeleton in Egypt's Eastern Desert In exploring these themes this volume celebrates the life and work of Tony Legge zoo archaeologist and teacher
