Seven Chairs:

The Seven Chairs Helen Lanteigne, Maryann Kovalski, 1998 Recounts the fate of seven very different chairs made by one man over the course of his life Oral Lessons in Number Emerson Elbridge White, 1884 The Seventh Chair Ann Keffer, 2007-08 Descending out of the blue of a bright afternoon in Washington D C appears what looks more clearly by the second like a chair a heavy ornate wooden chair with a high carved back and jutting armrests all polished to a high gloss and looking like booty from some medieval castle Seated in the chair and coming into clearer focus every second is a nun dressed in a habit complete with wimple and veil The chair lands on a school playground amid a circle of children and the nun slick as a whistle shimmies out of her habit to reveal underneath a silver robe with stars and crescent moons worked in gold all over it The most shocking change though is that she is no longer a she Without the habit it is obvious that this nun is really one of the littlest oldest most dried up men any of the children has ever seen Who is this person who arrives by means of a magic flying chair Join Davy MacDougal Wally Wilkins and this mysterious figure from the ancient past in an adventure the likes of which their school has never before experienced The Englishman's Chair John Gloag, 2022-10-24 Originally published in 1964 The Englishman's Chair is a history of English chairs written as a continuous story from the 15th to the 20th Century and because of the revealing powers inherent in chair making and design it is also an unconventional footnote to English social history The changes in taste and fashion the increase of skill the introduction of new materials and the long battle between dignity and comfort are discussed as is the impact that modern industrial designers have had on chair design
