Seventeen Years in the Underworld Wellington Scott, 2015-06-25 Excerpt from Seventeen Years in the Underworld The two of us were sitting in a large park in an Eastern city one beautiful summer evening As the rich afterglow of the sunset turned to twilight and then to dark my friend began to talk about the old furtive days in the underworld He told me how in many an American city he had stood before some house of an evening when the shades were not drawn Within he would see the father and the mother and the happy little children and all the bright light of home He would turn away abruptly and walk into the dark trying to forget it He could never have a home like that Somehow there flashed upon me that night such an intimate sense of the tragic loneliness which a man can know in the underworld as I had never felt before About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
