Kimmel, 2017 The sixth edition of The Gendered Society explores current thinking about gender both inside academia and in our everyday lives Michael Kimmel challenges the claim that gender is limited to women's experiences his compelling and balanced study of gender includes both masculine and feminine perspectives Kimmel makes three bold and persuasive statements about gender First he demonstrates that gender differences are often extremely exaggerated in fact he argues that men and women have much more in common than we think they do Kimmel also challenges the pop psychologists who suggest that gender difference is the cause of inequality between the sexes instead he reveals that the reverse is true gender inequality itself is the cause of the differences between men and women Finally he illustrates that gender is not merely an element of individual identity but a socially constructed institutional phenomenon

The Sexual Century Ethel Spector Person, 1999-01-01 Over the course of the past century sexual liberation has transformed the way in which most of us regard our bodies and live our sexual lives Now a preeminent psychoanalytic theoretician on sex and gender discusses what has gone into this unquiet revolution the roles played by sexologists and psychoanalysts antibiotics and birth control the liberation movements and Freud's insight that sex has as much to do with the mind as with the genitals In this collection of new and previously published papers Ethel Person writes of the centrality of sexuality to our identity She describes the role of fantasy in desire its different expression in the sexes and the way in which desire is inevitably intertwined with power Her classic papers on transvestism transsexualism and cross dressing homosexuals written with Lionel Ovesey help us to understand how gender and sex develop in all of us The public acceptance of the transsexual says Person is emblematic of the profound scientific and intellectual shifts that have taken place in the past hundred years The way that sex and gender develop and are experienced and expressed is the result not only of nature and nurture but also of the cultural zeitgeist its unspoken values and biases
