Writers of America Grand Master Award The Harms of Crime Media Denise L. Bissler, Joan L. Connors, 2014-01-10 A scan of today's television programming reveals numerous media stories factual and fictional featuring some aspect of crime. These depictions can stray far from reality with the effect of creating and reinforcing distorted impressions. This collection offers a sociological analysis of race, class, and gender stereotypes within crime media. Essays discuss particular examples of inequalities and stereotypes, consider the implications of such portrayals, and demonstrate how they influence the public's expectations and beliefs about real world crime.

White Collar Crime and Offenders Roy V. Lewis, 2002-10 This book is a landmark in the study of white collar crime and is the largest study of its kind ever conducted. This book will serve the needs of criminologists, policy makers, and the public as well. It will address the issue of what white collar crime is, how social scientists have grappled with its definition, and report on the results of a 20 year longitudinal study of white collar offenders. The frequency of their criminal conduct is analyzed and compared to other types of offenders. The study involved retrospectively analyzing the data on the criminal careers of a very large cohort of more than 17,000 offenders. The purpose of the study was to: 1. test hypotheses about white collar and street crime offenders; 2. evaluate and critique theories of crime in relation to both types of offenders; 3. determine the extent of chronic offending among white collar and street crime offenders within the career criminal paradigm; and 4. measure the degree of offense specialization found among all the offenders in the study.

Murder.com Haughton Murphy, 2016-07-12 A not so anonymous victim sends Reuben Frost on a chase to catch a high tech killer. The girl is found lying beside the East River, strangled. She's in her late twenties, so why was she carrying a fake ID? The case should have nothing to do with Reuben Frost, legendary retired Wall Street lawyer, but Frost has never been known to mind his own business. Not to mention his wife Cynthia has been slowed down by arthritis and his social calendar is barren for the first time in decades. It's the perfect time to find a murderer. The dead girl is Marina Courtland, daughter of millionaire food distributor Daniel Courtland, a treasured client of Frost's old firm. Working alongside his dear friend Luis Bautista, the sharpest detective in the NYPD, Frost digs into Marina's past. But what he discovers is a tangled web of plagiarism, infidelity, and indiscreet emails that will ultimately put him face to face with Marina's killer. Murder.com is the 8th book in the Reuben Frost Mysteries, but you may enjoy reading the series in any order.
