Sex And Violence In The Canadian Novel The Ancestral Present:

Sex and Violence in the Canadian Novel John Moss,1977 The Old Dualities Dianne Tiefensee,1994 In this provocative re examination of the work of Robert Kroetsch who has been hailed as the father of Canadian post modernism Dianne Tiefensee argues that Kroetsch s deconstruction fails to address or even comprehend the radical nature of Derrida s theory The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich,2006-01-01 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan s hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy s social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel s narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions The Canadian Novel John Moss,1983-02 A collection of essays about contemporary Canadian novels by Margaret Atwood Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Alice Munro Mordechai Richler Rudy Wiebe as edited by professor of English at the University of Ottawa John Moss Sexing the Maple Richard Cavell,Peter Dickinson,2006-09-14 Sexing the Maple is a unique sourcebook designed to raise issues of nationalism and sexuality in Canada through a rich and diverse selection of fiction poetry criticism and history Structured so as to provide an interactive study of these issues the collection considers topics as wide ranging as First Nations sexuality censorship assisted reproduction and religion Literary works by Alice Munro Jane Rule Timothy Findley Leonard Cohen Irving Layton Lynn Crosbie Michael Turner and many others are juxtaposed with criticism and historical documents many of which were previously out of print or unavailable Selections include Marshall McLuhan s 1967 article The Future of Sex and excerpts from Stan Persky and John Dixon s Kiddie Porn SKY Lee s Disappearing Moon Cafe and Margaret Atwood s A Handmaid s Tale Canada's 1960s Bryan Palmer,2008-03-29 Rebellious youth the Cold War New Left radicalism Pierre Trudeau Red Power Quebec s call for Revolution Marshall McLuhan these are just some of the major forces and figures that come to mind at the slightest mention of the 1960s in Canada Focusing on the major movements and personalities of the time as well as the lasting influence of the period Canada s 1960s examines the legacy of this rebellious decade s impact on contemporary notions of Canadian identity Bryan D Palmer demonstrates how after massive postwar immigration new political movements and at times violent protest Canada could no longer be viewed in the old ways National identity long rooted in notions of Canada as a white settler Dominion of the North marked profoundly by its origins as part of the British Empire had become unsettled Concerned with how Canadians entered the Sixties relatively secure in their national identities Palmer explores the forces that contributed to the post 1970 uncertainty about what it is to be Canadian Tracing the significance of dissent and upheaval among youth trade unionists university students Native peoples and Quebecois Palmer shows how the Sixties ended the entrenched nineteenth century notions of Canada The irony of this rebellious era however was that while it promised so much in the way of change it failed to provide a new understanding of Canadian national identity A compelling and highly accessible work of interpretive history Canada's 1960s is the book of the decade about an era many regard as the most turbulent and significant since the years of the Great Depression and World War II Shifting the Ground of Canadian Literary Studies Smaro Kamboureli, Robert Zacharias, 2013-01-15 Shifting the Ground of Canadian Literary Studies is a collection of interdisciplinary essays that examine the various contexts political social and cultural that have shaped the study of Canadian literature and the role it plays in our understanding of the Canadian nation state The essays are tied together as instances of critical practices that reveal the relations and exchanges that take place between the categories of the literary and the nation as well as between the disciplinary sites of critical discourses and the porous boundaries of their methods They are concerned with the material effects of the imperial and colonial logics that have fashioned Canada as well as with the paradoxes ironies and contortions that abound in the general perception that Canada has progressed beyond its colonial construction Smaro Kamboureli's introduction demonstrates that these essays engage with the larger realm of human and social practices throne speeches book clubs policies of accommodation of cultural and religious differences Indigenous thought about justice and ethics to show that literary and critical work is inextricably related to the Canadian polity in light of transnational and global forces Major Canadian Authors David Stouck, 1988-01-01

Canadian literature in English presents a wealth of imaginative experience that belies the colonial status sometimes accorded the world's second largest country This revised and expanded edition of Major Canadian Authors provides an entrance into that realm Stouck's carefully integrated essays introduce the life and writings of eighteen foremost Canadian authors including Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Sinclair Ross and Alice Munro The second edition adds a new chapter on Margaret Atwood updates the text and expands the reference guide to include more than sixty Canadian authors

Through a Glass Darkly Holly Faith Nelson, Lynn R. Szabo, Jens Zimmermann, 2011-01-19 Suffering the sacred and the sublime are concepts that often surface in humanities research in an attempt to come to terms with what is challenging troubling or impossible to represent These intersecting concepts are used to mediate the gap between the spoken and the unspeakable between experience and language between body and spirit between the immanent and the transcendent and between the human and the divine The twenty five essays in Through a Glass Darkly Suffering the Sacred and the Sublime in Literature and Theory written by international scholars working in the fields of literary criticism philosophy and history address the ways in which literature and theory have engaged with these three concepts and related concerns The contributors analyze literary and theoretical texts from the medieval period to the postmodern age from the works of Chaucer Shakespeare Donne and Herbert to those of End Sh saku Alice Munro Annie Dillard Emmanuel Levinas and Slavoj i ek This book will be of particular interest to scholars of religion and literature philosophy and literature aesthetic theory and trauma studies Mothers and Other Clowns (Routledge Revivals) Magdalene Redekop, 2014-03-14 First published in 1992 this is the first study of the work of Alice Munro to focus on her obsession with mothering and to relate it to the hallucinatory quality of her magic realism A bizarre collection of clowning mothers parade across the pages of Munro s fiction playing practical jokes performing stunts and dressing in disguises that recycle vintage literary images Magdalene Redekop studies this with the aim of gaining increased understanding of Munro s evolving comic vision
