Hugo Wolf and his Mörike Songs Susan Youens,2000-06-22 Viennese composer Hugo Wolf produced one of the most important song collections of the nineteenth century when he set to music fifty three poems by the great German poet Eduard Mörike Susan Youens reappraises this singular collaboration to shed new light on the sophisticated interplay between poetry and music in the songs Wolf is customarily described as the Poet's Composer someone who revered poetry and served it faithfully in his music Yet as Youens reveals this cliché overlooks the rich terrain in which his songs are often at cross purposes with his chosen poetry Although Wolf did much to draw the world's attention to the neglected Swabian poet his musical interpretation of the poetry was also influenced by his own life psychology and experiences This book examines selected Mörike songs in detail demonstrating that the poems and music each have their own distinctive stories which at times intersect but also diverge      New-York Mirror Theodore Sedgwick Fay,1839      Home Magazine ,1855 foes from their past memories and experiences and visible enemies who view their clandestine work as a destructive force of communism. As they confront danger and face physical and emotional sacrifices along the way, their sense of mission conveys a profound vision of democracy and self-determination. Bulosan's exceptional narrative at once an allegorical and a psychological critique of the West's racism and delusion of supremacy portrays an armed rebellion that can represent many Third World peoples. Literary and political Bulosan's work embodies his personal dream of equality and freedom. When asked what impelled him to write, Bulosan replied, "To give literate voices to the voiceless, to translate the desires and aspirations of the whole Filipino people in the Philippines and abroad in terms relevant to contemporary history."

Author note: Born in 1911 in the Philippines to a peasant family, Carlos Bulosan was one of the first wave of Filipino immigrants to come to the United States in the 1930s. After several arduous years as a farmworker in California, Bulosan became involved with radical intellectuals and started editing the workers magazine The New Tide. While hospitalized for three years for tuberculosis and kidney problems, Bulosan began writing poetry and short stories. Despite having little formal education, he saw his talent for writing as a means to give a voice to Filipino struggles both in the Philippines and in the United States. He went on to publish three volumes of poetry, a best-selling collection of stories, The Laughter of My Father, and America Is in the Heart, the much acclaimed chronicle based on his family's battle to overcome poverty, violence, and racism in the United States. The Cry and the Dedication carries on Bulosan's passionate satirical style.
