A Long Road to Progress Richard Hall,2010-08-13 Fascinating dispatches from a Kiwi Commander in Afghanistan As Commander of the New Zealand troops in the Bamiyan Province of Afghanistan Colonel Richard Hall gained a unique insight into the lives of Kiwi soldiers serving in a harsh climate amid daily threats as well as into the lives of the locals from the female governor trying to establish order in a patriarchal society to the farmer scratching a living from an inhospitable land to the orphaned girls destined to be sold into marriage at a young age He vividly and movingly recalls his experiences but also explains the vision he tried to implement on behalf of New Zealand He tackles the complex issues involved in an army that seeks to bring both aid and a Western way of doing things in a deeply Islamic country And he offers an astute perspective on working with New Zealand troops American soldiers corrupt Afghani officials intransigent aid organisations while tackling crippling poverty insurgent attacks impossible terrain and severe weather This is an important and fascinating view of New Zealand s role in Afghanistan

The Long Road to Nowhere Mark Jones,2009-05 One day while sitting on a park bench Mark was asked by an old man Why do you do what you do Why do you work where you work or live where you live Whether we agree or not life really is about a series of paths and decisions whereby even one small change can alter our lives forever We usually want to blame others including God for our decisions Only by examining the paths we have taken can we really see where we re at It is only when we look deep within ourselves we discover that as writers singers musicians interior decorators or even truck drivers we all have gifts Having them is not to question rather it is WHAT WE DO WITH THEM that really matters Wherever your passions lie you can erase your doubts and restore your joy Just imagine yourself on a park bench
