P. S. Marshall, 2012-12-12 Not Grant nor Sherman nor any of our country's heroes were ever made the subject of more ardent curiosity on the part of our citizens than the hero of a thousand mile walk The excitement at times reached almost to the point of frenzy and in their eagerness to gain a standing point right in front of the window at which the beaming countenance of the great man was seen the crowd came in sharp collision with the police Chicago Tribune November 1867 He moved through a greater mass of people than was on the streets when William H Taft as President of the United States was here or when Theodore Roosevelt came the day after Crowds that blocked all traffic in the neighborhood greeted the veteran pedestrian The side streets were choked and every roof had a fringe of humanity New York's The Sun August 1913 In a professional career spanning just over 60 years one man would capture the imagination and the hearts of the people of the sporting world Born in 1839 the enigmatic and eccentric American from Providence Rhode Island would become the walking sensation of both Britain and the USA where he would wow the enormous crowds that filled the arenas and lined the roadsides with his performances on the tracks and highways Handsome immaculately dressed well spoken and intelligent the Wily Wobbler would be watched by hoards of adoring fans throughout his career which would see him compete against time and other athletes in the most amazing competitions Everyone wanted to see him in action Whenever he was pacing around a sawdust track or scurrying along a dirt road they clapped him they cheered him they loved him and he loved them Without them he was a nobody but with their support and his gutsy determination to succeed against all the odds he became the
