understanding of what it means to be alive in this world Some Kind of Hero Matthew Field,Ajay Chowdhury,2015-10-12 For over 50 years Albert R Broccoli s Eon Productions has navigated the ups and downs of the volatile British film industry enduring both critical wrath and acclaim in equal measure for its now legendary James Bond series Latterly this family run business has been crowned with box office gold and recognised by motion picture academies around the world However it has not always been plain sailing Changing financial regimes forced 007 to relocate to France and Mexico changing fashions and politics led to box office disappointments and changing studio regimes and business disputes all but killed the franchise And the rise of competing action heroes has constantly questioned Bond s place in popular culture But against all odds the filmmakers continue to wring new life from the series and 2012 s Skyfall saw both huge critical and commercial success crowning 007 as the undisputed king of the action genre Some Kind of Hero recounts this remarkable story from its origins in the early 60s right through to the present day and draws on hundreds of unpublished interviews with the cast and crew of this iconic series Marathon Clarence DeMar,2016-10-26 Long before the days of running apps designer running shoes and online marathon training programs three time Olympian Clarence DeMar self coached his way to seven Boston Marathon victories a record that remains unbroken today More than one hundred years since winning his first marathon Clarence DeMarathon DeMar is still known as one of the greatest American distance runners of all time Marathon DeMar s 1937 memoir is a simple and honest reflection of the life of this working class family man who experienced national fame during the depression era A student of his sport and an athlete far ahead of his time DeMar would average 100 miles per week while closely monitoring his body s response to nutritional changes Among the first elite athletes to experiment with vegetarian and alkaline based diets DeMar shares his experience based perspective on nutrition sleep mileage and even foot strike topics that are still heavily debated in the running community today The fashion and technology surrounding the sport may certainly have changed over the years but the feat of running 26 2 miles has remained Perhaps this is why modern day runners find DeMar s Marathon memoir to be as pertinent and informative today as it was in 1937 When Harry Met Cubby Robert Sellers,2019-09-23 Enthralling an essential read particularly for fans of 007 Cinema Retro When Harry Met Cubby is a fitting tribute to two extraordinary men If you love behind the scenes stories about the making of movies there s plenty of drama to sate you here Entertainment Focus Albert R Cubby Broccoli and Harry Saltzman remain the most successful producing partnership in movie history Together they were responsible for the phenomenally successful James Bond series separately they brought kitchen sink drama to the screen made a star out of Michael Caine in the Harry Palmer films and were responsible for the children s classic Chitty Chitty Bang Bang But their relationship was fraught almost from the very beginning With such contrasting personalities their interactions often span out of control They managed to drive away their coveted star Sean Connery and ultimately each other Loved and hated in equal measure respected and feared by their contemporaries few people have loomed as large over the film industry as Broccoli and Saltzman yet their lives went in very different directions Broccoli was feted as Hollywood royalty whereas Saltzman ended up a forgotten recluse When Harry Met Cubby charts the changing fortunes and clashing personalities of two titans of the big screen What I Talk About

John Lahr, 2014-09-22 National Book Critics Circle Award Winner Biography Category National Book Award Finalist 2015 Winner of the Sheridan Morley Prize for Theatre Biography American Academy of Arts and Letters Harold D Vursell Memorial Award A Chicago Tribune Best Books of 2014 USA Today 10 Books We Loved Reading Washington Post 10 Best Books of 2014 The definitive biography of America's greatest playwright from the celebrated drama critic of The New Yorker John Lahr has produced a theater biography like no other Tennessee Williams Mad Pilgrimage of the Flesh gives intimate access to the mind of one of the most brilliant dramatists of his century whose plays reshaped the American theater and the nation's sense of itself This astute deeply researched biography sheds a light on Tennessee Williams's warring family his guilt his creative triumphs and failures his sexuality and numerous affairs his misreported death even the shenanigans surrounding his estate With vivid cameos of the formative influences in Williams's life his fierce belittling father Cornelius his puritanical domineering mother Edwina his demented sister Rose who was lobotomized at the age of thirty three his beloved grandfather the Reverend Walter Dakin Tennessee Williams Mad Pilgrimage of the Flesh is as much a biography of the man who created A Streetcar Named Desire The Glass Menagerie and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof as it is a trenchant exploration of Williams's plays and the tortured process of bringing them to stage and screen. The portrait of Williams himself is unforgettable: a virgin until he was twenty-six; he had serial homosexual affairs thereafter as well as long-time bruising relationships with Pancho Gonzalez and Frank Merlo. With compassion and verve, Lahr explores how Williams's relationships informed his work and how the resulting success brought turmoil to his personal life. Lahr captures not just Williams's tempestuous public persona but also his backstage life where his agent Audrey Wood and the director Elia Kazan play major roles and Marlon Brando, Anna Magnani, Bette Davis, Maureen Stapleton, Diana Barrymore, and Tallulah Bankhead have scintillating walk-on parts. This is a biography of the highest order: a book about the major American playwright of his time written by the major American drama critic of his time.

Running Away Robert Andrew Powell, 2014. Showing how one decision can alter the course of a life, a journalist shares his personal journey of coming back up after hitting rock bottom by developing a passion for long-distance running.

Edward Albee: A Singular Journey Mel Gussow, 2012-11-27. In 1960, Edward Albee electrified the theater world with the American premiere of The Zoo Story and followed it two years later with his extraordinary first Broadway play Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? Proclaimed as the playwright of his generation, he went on to win three Pulitzer Prizes for his searing and innovative plays. Mel Gussow, author, critic, and cultural writer for The New York Times, has known Albee and followed his career since its inception and in this fascinating biography he creates a compelling firsthand portrait of a complex genius. The book describes Albee's life as the adopted child of rich, unloving parents and covers the highs and lows of his career. A core myth of Albee's life, perpetuated by the playwright, is that The Zoo Story was his first play written as a thirtieth birthday present to himself. As Gussow relates, Albee has been writing since adolescence and through close analysis, the author traces the genesis of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, Tiny Alice, A Delicate Balance, and other plays. After his early triumphs, Albee endured years of critical neglect and public disfavor. Overcoming artistic and personal difficulties, he returned in 1994 with Three Tall Women. In this prizewinning play, he came to terms with the towering figure of his mother, the woman who dominated so much of his early life. With frankness and critical acumen and drawing on extensive conversations with the playwright, Gussow offers fresh insights into Albee's life. At the same time, he provides vivid portraits of Albee's relationships with the people who have been closest to him, including William Flanagan, his first mentor; Thornton Wilder; Richard Barr; John Steinbeck; Alan Schneider; John Gielgud; and his leading ladies, Uta Hagen, Colleen Dewhurst, Irene Worth, Myra Carter, Elaine Stritch, Marian Seldes, and Maggie Smith. And then there are most famously Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, who starred in Mike Nichols's acclaimed film version of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? The book places Albee in context as a playwright who inspired writers as diverse as John Guare and Sam Shepard and as a teacher and champion of human rights. Edward Albee: A Singular Journey is rich with colorful details about this uniquely American life. It also contains previously unpublished photographs and letters from and to Albee. It is the essential book about one of the major artists of the American theater.
