Long Term Care And Medicare Policy:

Long-Term Care and Medicare Policy David Blumenthal, Marilyn Moon, Mark Warshawsky, 2004-05-13 As the population ages policymakers must evaluate the nation's readiness to assist a growing group of people with conditions requiring chronic and long term care Based on the 2002 annual meeting of the National Academy of Social Insurance this new volume offers a variety of viewpoints from policymakers researchers and experts who examine how well the needs of the elderly and disabled Americans are being met by today's financing and delivery systems in light of potential reform options Particular attention is paid to care coordination issues namely the impact of acute care policies on long term and chronic care to draw attention to how the segmentation of healthcare provision can create disruptions in patient care Authors address the advantages and disadvantages of varying levels of state federal and private involvement in long term care Clearly for people to access appropriate long term care today and tomorrow a careful balance of financing sources and integrated health care must be achieved Researchers analysts and policymakers therefore will find this volume useful to informing thoughtful analysis of important long term care issues

Medicare Policy Karen Davis, Diane Rowland, 1986 Effective Management of Long Term Care Facilities Douglas Singh, 2010-02-18 Effective Management of Long Term Care Facilities explores the complex operations of the long term care facility and offers critical skills to current and future nursing home administrators for delivering quality cost effective services The Second Edition has been thoroughly revised and reorganized to offer a more cohesive presentation of the material New chapters that have been added cover the long term care industry long term care policy and supportive case studies that incorporate management and patient care issues

Effective Management of Long-term Care Facilities Douglas A. Singh, 2005 This outstanding new text provides a clear understanding of how the ideal long term care facility should operate and how prospective as well as currently employed nursing home administrators can hone their skills to deliver quality services cost effectively
