Long Talking Bad Conditions Blues:

Postmodernist Fiction Brian McHale, 2003-09-02 In this trenchant and lively study Brian McHale undertakes to construct a version of postmodernist fiction which encompasses forms as wide ranging as North American metafiction Latin American magic realism the French New Novel concrete prose and science fiction Considering a variety of theoretical approaches including those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel and Hrushovski McHale shows that the common denominator is postmodernist fiction's ability to thrust its own ontological status into the foreground and to raise questions about the world or worlds in which we live Exploiting various theoretical approaches to literary ontology those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel Hrushovski and others and ranging widely over contemporary world literature McHale assembles a comprehensive repertoire of postmodernist fiction's strategies of world making and unmaking

The Columbia Literary History of the United States Emory Elliott, 1988-02-15 For the first time in four decades there exists an authoritative and up to date survey of the literature of the United States from prehistoric cave narratives to the radical movements of the sixties and the experimentation of the eighties This comprehensive volume one of the century's most important books in American studies extensively treats Hawthorne Melville Dickinson Hemingway and other long cherished writers while also giving considerable attention to recently discovered writers such as Kate Chopin and to literary movements and forms of writing not studied amply in the past Informed by the most current critical and theoretical ideas it sets forth a generation's interpretation of the rise of American civilization and culture The Columbia Literary History of the United States contains essays by today's foremost scholars and critics overseen by a board of distinguished editors headed by Emory Elliott of Princeton University These contributors reexamine in contemporary terms traditional subjects such as the importance of Puritanism Romanticism and frontier humor in American life and writing but they also fully explore themes and materials that have only begun to receive deserved attention in the last two decades Among these are the role of women as writers readers and literary subjects and the impact of writers from minority groups both inside and outside the literary establishment

Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting in the Cold War Era and After M. Cornis-Pope, 2016-04-30 Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism's responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction this book highlights their solutions to ontological division real vs imaginary wordly and other worldly sociocultural oppositions of race class gender and narratological dualities imitation vs invention realism vs formalism A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction narrative and cultural articulation Stepping back from traditional polarizations innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities excluded middles and creative intercrossings The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer,1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors

Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction Arthur M. Saltzman,2016-11-11 In Designs of Darkness Arthur M Saltzman examines some of the ways in which fiction has traditionally conspired to promote a goal oriented vision of the work of art and explores the ways in which postmodern or postrealist fiction consistently and unavoidably subverts the clarity of this vision Offering readings of works by well known authors including Barthelme Doctorow DeLillo and Hakes as well as works by lesser known writers Auster Gangemi Saltzman concentrates on the breakdown of epiphany in recent fiction both as philosophical motive and as structural foundation In contemporary fiction Saltzman contends ambiguities blossom far beyond our capacities to stabilize summarize or restore them to sense The old rules of the game in which a reader looking for truth can expect come sort of satisfactory resolution no longer apply Literature now comes out of the answerless Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction is a valuable new resource for scholars and students of contemporary literature

Musing the Mosaic Matthew Roberson,2012-02-01 In Musing the Mosaic prominent critics of postmodern and contemporary fiction and culture discuss the fictional and theoretical works of Ronald Sukenick one of the most important American writers to emerge from the late 1960s Sukenick has been a prolific participant in reshaping the American literary tradition for two generations and played a pivotal role in the creation and growth of the Fiction Collective and FC2 publishing houses as well as the journals American Book Review and Black Ice Magazine In his work he argues that contemporary fiction can neither perform traditional functions nor rely on any conventions in an ever more dynamic world Staying true to Sukenick s own creative style one that takes the seams out of writing before re stitching it in ways that are truly novel the contributors examine how and why his writing comes closer to the dissolving fragmentary nature of reality and its lack of closure than perhaps anything written before it The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism Stuart Sim,2013-06-17 The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism combines a series of fourteen in depth background chapters with a body of A Z entries to create an authoritative yet readable guide to the complex world of postmodernism Design and Debris Joseph Conte,2002-04-24 Design and Debris discusses the relationship between order and disorder in the works of John Hawkes Harry Mathews John Barth Gilbert Sorrentino Robert Coover Thomas Pynchon Kathy Acker and Don DeLillo In analyzing their work Joseph Conte brings to bear a unique approach adapted from scientific thought chaos theory His chief concern is illuminating those works whose narrative structures locate order hidden in disorder whose authors Conte terms proceduralists and those whose structures reflect the opposite disorder emerging from states of order whose authors Conte calls disruptors Documenting the paradigm shift from modernism in which artists attempted to impose order on a disordered world to postmodernism in which the artist portrays the process of orderly disorder Conte shows how the shift has led to postmodern artists embrace of science in their treatment of complex ideas Detailing how chaos theory interpenetrates disciplines as varied as economics politics biology and cognitive science he suggests a second paradigm shift from modernist specialization to postmodern pluralism In such a pluralistic world the novel is freed from the purely literar

Keeping Literary Company Jerome Klinkowitz, 1999-06-10 Starting in the 1960s a group of radically new fiction writers began having success at reinventing the novel and short story for postmodern times Chief among them were Kurt Vonnegut Jerzy Kosinski Donald Barthelme Ronald Sukenick Raymond Federman Clarence Major and Gilbert Sorrentino Although their work proved puzzling to reviewers and did not fit the conventions familiar to academic critics these writers found an ally in a young reader named Jerome Klinkowitz Hired to teach Hawthorne and other nineteenth century figures Klinkowitz found his deepest sympathies and most lifelike affinities to be with Vonnegut and company instead Beginning in 1969 he published the first scholarly essays on Vonnegut Kosinski Barthelme and the others in turn By 1975 he was ready to write Literary Disruptions a literary history of what he called this post contemporary period Since then he has written more than thirty books on contemporary fiction and its allied developments in cultural history art music politics and philosophy Keeping Literary Company details Klinkowitz s work with these writers not just researching their fiction and other publications but introducing them to one another and taking part in the business world activities that spread news of their innovations He shows how what they wrote was so much a part of those turbulent times that a new literary generation found itself defined in such works as Slaughterhouse Five Being There and Snow White Here is a fascinating first person account of what these important figures wrote how they wrote it and what it means in the development of American fiction

Critifiction Raymond Federman, 1993-10-21 This book examines how beginning in the 1960s up to the present a new type of fiction was created in America but also in Europe and Latin America in response to the cultural social and political turmoil of the time The author has coined the term Surfiction for this New Fiction Written in an informal provocative style by an internationally known practitioner these essays examine the cultural social and political conditions that forced serious writers to reflect often within the work itself on the act of writing fiction in the modern world The entire book can be read as a manifesto for the present and future of the new fiction This book is the first in the SUNY series in Postmodern Culture edited by Joseph Natoli

Narrative and Culture Janice Carlisle, Daniel R. Schwarz, 2010-08-01 Narrative and Culture draws together fourteen essays in which leading scholars discuss narrative texts and practices in a variety of media and genres subjecting them to sustained cultural analysis The essays cross national borders and historical periods as often and as easily as they traverse disciplinary boundaries and they examine canonical fiction as well as postmodern media photography film television The primary subject of these pieces notes Janice Carlisle is the relation between the telling of tales and the engagement of their tellers and listeners in the practices of specific societies Contributors Nina Auerbach Thomas B Byers Jay Clayton Marcel

Sickey John Carlos Rowe Daniel R Schwarz Carol Siegel Felipe Smith Writing at the Limit Daniel Punday, 2012-05-01

While some cultural critics are pronouncing the death of the novel a whole generation of novelists have turned to other media with curiosity rather than fear These novelists are not simply incorporating references to other media into their work for the sake of verisimilitude they are also engaging precisely such media as a way of talking about what it means to write and read narrative in a society filled with stories told outside the print medium By examining how some of our best fiction writers have taken up the challenge of film television video games and hypertext Daniel Punday offers an enlightening look into the current status of such fundamental narrative concepts as character plot and setting He considers well known postmodernists like Thomas Pynchon and Robert Coover more accessible authors like Maxine Hong Kingston and Oscar Hijuelos and unjustly overlooked writers like Susan Daitch and Kenneth Gangemi and asks how their works investigate the nature and limits of print as a medium for storytelling Writing at the Limit explores how novelists locate print writing within the contemporary media ecology and what it really means to be writing at print's media limit In the Slipstream Ronald Sukenick, Curtis

White, 1999 Along the way FC2 has introduced readers to the works of Mark Layner Russell Banks Raymond Federman
Ronald Sukenick Eurudice Gerald Vizenor and many more BOOK JACKET Narralogues Ronald Sukenick, 2000-01-06

These narralogues combine story and argument moving from Socratic dialogue to outright narrative and ultimately making the case that fiction is a medium for telling the truth The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature Joe

Bray, Alison Gibbons, Brian McHale, 2012 The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature maps this expansive and multifaceted field with essays on the history of literary experiment from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present the impact of new media on literature including multimodal literature digital fiction and code poetry the development of experimental genres from graphic narratives and found poetry through to gaming and interactive fiction experimental movements from Futurism and Surrealism to Postmodernism Avant Pop and Flarf Shedding new light on often critically neglected terrain the contributors introduce this vibrant area define its current state and offer exciting new perspectives on its future The Death of the Novel and Other Stories Ronald Sukenick, 2003 Originally published in 1969 The Death of the Novel and Other Stories remains among the most memorable creations of an unforgettable age Irrepressibly experimental in both content and form these anti fictions set out to rescue experience from its containment within artistic convention and bourgeois morality Equal parts high modernist aesthete and borscht belt comedian Sukenick joins avant garde art with street slang and cartoons expressing his generation's anxieties by simultaneously mocking and validating them These are original works by a writer who will try absolutely anything Say It Hot, Volume II: Eric Miles

Williamson, 2014-10-15 Say It Hot Volume II Industrial Strength is a collection of essays on American poets fiction writers nonfiction writers and issues of interest to artists and academics A companion volume to Say It Hot these essays are brutally honest and acutely intelligent From the book Literary authors these days no longer make livings off their work Their books are not to be found in bookstores and the books are rarely printed by major New York publishing houses No one reads their works except for other literary authors and the professors who are evaluating their tenure and promotion folders at the colleges and universities at which they are employed and it s a minor miracle if a literary book from a small press sells a thousand copies Fiction writers from wealth write about writing or they write about the ridiculous sufferings of the rich Fiction writers from the lower classes write about the primordial filth from which they ve physically escaped but from which they ll never mentally be able to leave behind Like war veterans people who ve fought it out in the miasma of poverty and blue collar hell can never get the stink out of their skins try as they may Just like people who haven t been to war can spot vets who have middle class people and the rich can spot people who ve grown up poor no matter what their position in life or the quality of their designer suits Those suits just don t fit right and the neckties make them fidget and sweat What the well heeled authors and the working class writers have in common is that they ve been trained not to pronounce moral judgment

Nineteen Ninety-eight Point Six Matthew Roberson,2002 A first time novelist parodies Ronald Sukenick s classic fiction of the sixties Fetishists dreamers voyeurs internet porn addicts granola heads drug dealers dorks liars layabouts workaholics sex maniacs TV junkies compulsives neurotics intellectuals idealists graduate students all In this book about the complicated experience of pursuing a Ph D Matthew Roberson details the curious world of a group stuck between childhood and adulthood idealism and surrealism representation and reality What he wants he thinks is to screw things up If you screw things up they fall apart If things fall apart then you re under the skin of the world And when you reemerge when things come together again they come together differently Different than before So what does this mean it means he wants to fail Believe it or not He aspires to failure It s possible however he realizes to fail at failing Or to make of it a howling success In this his first novel Roberson rewrites Ronald Sukenick s classic fiction of the sixties 98 6 simultaneously parodying earlier experimental life and art while exposing present day vacuousness and alienation It s a hilarious send up of American narcissism wherein Roberson brilliantly reveals video culture and the web cam as nineties embodiments of metafictional self fascination

Violence and Mediation in Contemporary Culture Ronald Bogue,Marcel Cornis-Pope,Marcel Pop-Corni?,1996-01-01 This collection of essays addresses two major issues of contemporary culture the problem of violence in relation to notions of difference and power and the role of mediation in making possible non conflictive play of cultural differences
