Astaire by Numbers Todd R. Decker, 2022 Astaire by Numbers looks at every second of dancing Fred Astaire committed to film in the studio era all six hours thirty four minutes and fifty seconds Using a quantitative digital humanities approach as well as previously untapped production records author Todd Decker takes the reader onto the set and into the rehearsal halls and editing rooms where Astaire created his seemingly perfect film dances Watching closely in this way reveals how Astaire used the technically sophisticated resources of the Hollywood film making machine to craft a singular career in mass entertainment as a straight white man who danced Decker dissects Astaire's work at the level of the shot the cut and the dance step to reveal the aesthetic and practical choices that yielded Astaire's dancing figure on screen He offers new insights into how Astaire secured his masculinity and his heterosexuality along with a new understanding of Astaire's whiteness which emerges in both the sheer extent of his work and the larger implications of his famous full figure framing of his dancing body Astaire by Numbers rethinks this towering straight white male figure from the ground up by digging deeply into questions of race gender and sexuality ultimately offering a complete re-assessment of a twentieth century icon of American popular culture Promise in the Void Eileen MacDonald, 2024-05-23 In the aftermath of WWII Helen a war bride from England journeys with her infant son to an unfamiliar continent on the hope of a promise A promise that is at times hard to hold on to While Canadian citizens face their private battles at home Helen determinedly perseveres as wife to a suffering veteran and mother to their son Her resolve to fight for her family and make the vast distant prairies her new homeland reveal the strength and power of a war bride's heart Eileen began writing Promise in the Void in the mid 1940s Many aspects of the story parallel her own journey as an immigrant to Canada In 1997 she passed the manuscript on to her granddaughter Rebekah who published the novel in 2017

Geoff Rolls,2014-11-26 The human mind is both extraordinary and compelling But this is more than a collection of case studies it is a selection of stories that illustrate some of the most extreme forms of human behaviour From the leader who convinced his followers to kill themselves to the man who lost his memory from the boy who was brought up as a girl to the woman with several personalities Geoff Rolls illustrates some of the most fundamental tenets of psychology Each case study has provided invaluable insights for scholars and researchers and amazed the public at large Several have been the inspiration for works of fiction for example the story of Kim Peek the real Rain Man This new edition features three new case studies including the story of Charles Decker who was tried for the attempted murder of two people but acquitted on the basis of a neurological condition and Dorothy Martin whose persisting belief in an impending alien invasion is an illuminating example of cognitive dissonance In addition each case study is contextualized with more typical behaviour while the latest thinking in each sub field is also discussed Classic Case Studies in Psychology is accessibly written and requires no prior knowledge of psychology just an interest in the human condition It is a book that will amaze sometimes disturb but above all enlighten its readers Daredevil Dancer Carollyne Lairie,2021-01-23 What would you be willing to sacrifice for happiness
