Examines how Aristotle posits political philosophy and the experience of friendship as a means to bind strictly intellectual virtue with morality In this book Ann Ward explores Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics focusing on the progressive structure of the argument Aristotle begins by giving an account of moral virtue from the perspective of the moral agent only to find that the account itself highlights fundamental tensions within the virtues that push the moral agent into the realm of intellectual virtue However the existence of an intellectual realm separate from the moral realm can lead to lack of self restraint Aristotle Ward argues locates political philosophy and the experience of friendship as possible solutions to the problem of lack of self restraint since political philosophy thinks about the human things in a universal way and friendship grounds the pursuit of the good which is happiness understood as contemplation Ward concludes that Aristotle's philosophy of friendship points to the embodied intellect of timocratic friends and mothers in their activity of mothering as engaging in the highest form of contemplation and thus living the happiest life Philosophy Goes to the Movies Christopher Falzon,2014-07-31

Now emulated in several competing publications but still unsurpassed in clarity and insight Philosophy Goes to the Movies An Introduction to Philosophy Third Edition builds on the approach that made the two earlier editions so successful Drawing on many popular and some lesser known films from around the world Christopher Falzon introduces students to key areas in philosophy like Ethics Social and Political Philosophy The Theory of Knowledge The Self and Personal Identity Critical Thinking Perfect for beginners this book guides the reader through philosophy using illuminating cinematic works like Avatar Inception Fight Club Wings of Desire Run Lola Run A Clockwork Orange Blade Runner Dirty Harry and many other films The fully revised and updated Third Edition features an expanded introduction that provides a new discussion of the relationship between film and philosophy new material on notable philosophers such as Aristotle Merleau Ponty and Rawls and coverage of new topics like virtue ethics and what Socrates offers for critical thinking An updated glossary references and bibliography and a filmography are also included in the Third Edition Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association
