book you will learn how to create engaging and interactive web applications using the latest version of the world's most popular web development platform ASP.NET with AJAX built on the productivity enhancing features of Visual Studio 2008. All you need to get started is a basic knowledge of HTML and a desire to produce professional quality websites. Learning ASP.NET 3.5 introduces new skills in each new chapter and offers fully annotated and fully functional examples that you can put to work immediately. Each chapter adds detailed summaries, practice questions to ensure comprehension and exercises so you can apply what you've learned to new situations. Written by the bestselling author team of Jesse Liberty, Dan Hurwitz and Brian MacDonald, Learning ASP.NET 3.5 offers complete up-to-date coverage of ASP.NET 3.5 and AJAX. The book includes Chapters that are designed as a series of tutorials on different aspects of web development. Examples in each chapter that illustrate how a new concept works. Different chapters feature either a single running example with several stages or a series of smaller examples. A single large example in the final chapter offers that uses everything the reader has learned. VB, JavaScript and SQL Cheat Sheet sidebars to help readers with no little or no background with those topics. AJAX style fully integrated into ASP.NET programming the way it should be taught and used. If you want to get up to speed with the world's most popular web development technology, Learning ASP.NET 3.5 is the best resource for the job.

Streaming Video Resources for Teaching, Learning, and Research Julie A. DeCesare, 2014-03-27 According to a 2012 Ithaka study, 80 percent of faculty in the humanities and 70 percent in social sciences use video film and non-textual resources for teaching undergraduates. Streaming video is not simply an accommodation to distance learners; rather, it's an expectation for the curriculum and a valuable tool for teaching critical thinking skills, analysis, and the use of primary sources. This issue of Library Technology Reports will help you recommend high quality video resources for faculty and researchers with information on 75 YouTube channels for teaching, learning, and research; 11 interdisciplinary video and multimedia sites with annotations on features and content; 6 open access course collections; 5 university channels and collections. Using video with Moodle, Sakai, LibGuides, or WordPress. Mass market video sites that offer library friendly business models.
