Parliament. House of Commons,1826 The Barnett formula Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: Select Committee on the Barnett Formula,2009-07-17 The Barnett Formula is the mechanism used by the United Kingdom Government to allocate more than half of total public expenditure in Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland The Formula has been used for the last thirty years to determine the annual increase in allocation the increment Each year these increments are added on to the previous year s allocation the baseline to create what is now a significant block grant of funds The Formula accounted for almost 49 billion of public spending in 2007 08 Despite the political changes within the United Kingdom the Formula has continued to be used and has never been reviewed or revised The Formula was only intended to be a short term measure and should no longer be A UK Funding Commission should be established to assess relative need in the UK s regions and advise on a new method of distributing funding to reflect those needs The baseline has never been reviewed to take account of changing population patterns this means that the grant provides funds without reference to the needs of each of the countries and regions of the UK There should be a link between the grant of funds made to each of the administrations and their actual per capita funding needs The Committee s research suggests that England and Scotland have markedly lower overall needs per head of population than Wales and Northern Ireland The Committee suggest that the UK Funding Commission undertake an assessment of relative need now and in the future and that they undertake periodic reviews as well as publish annual data about the allocation of funding between the devolved administrations

Scotland's North Highlands (Slow Travel) Emma Gibbs,2025-02-07 Scotland s North Highlands Slow Travel is the latest title in Bradt s series of distinctive widely acclaimed Slow travel guides to local UK regions Written by a northern Scotland specialist who edits the award winning JRNY Travel Magazine this guidebook provides greater detail than any other to the whole of northern Scotland roaming far beyond the increasingly popular 516 mile North Coast 500 NC500 driving route Coupling a wide personal selection of places to explore with focused advice on travel practicalities Scotland s North Highlands Slow Travel encourages visitors to adopt a leisurely approach designed to tease out the region s many special qualities and contribute positively to local communities In the far northern reaches of Scotland Sutherland Caithness and Ross shire are regions that by their very nature demand to be taken slowly Single track roads dominate skirting lochs and winding up and over moorland and mountains carpeted with blanket bog settlements are few and far between and you ll often feel outnumbered by sheep as yet another flock ambles across a road leading to a crumbling castle old fishing port or alluring ancient site But biding your time is no inconvenience here not when every corner reveals a yet more staggering view when remote coastal cliffs throb with the cries of seabirds or when following a sign down a potholed road leads to an empty cove of sand that shimmers pink and blue in the ever changing Highlands light There are no large settlements here the second largest town has barely 1 500 inhabitants so visitors focus very much on the outdoors Getting into wilderness is joyously easy within moments of parking your car or stepping out of your B B you re striding among scenery so enchanting and dramatic it feels like it s been conjured up by someone s imagination Whether you crave clambering over rocks to discover secret beaches watching dolphins leap kayaking to uninhabited islands or trekking to the UK s highest waterfall northern Scotland is the kind of place that gets its teeth into you a place that people return to again and again Just the place indeed for Bradt s Scotland s North Highlands to provide the perfect travelling companion HC 504 - The Implications of Scottish Independence on Business; Higher Education and Research; and Postal Services Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Business, Innovation and Skills Committee,2014-08-08 A Yes vote for independence will break up the UK single market and in the short term could leave Scottish businesses uncertain of their position in Europe says the Business

Innovation and Skills Committee in this report A protracted Scottish negotiation over EU membership and the uncertain investment environment arising from a Yes vote will have a damaging impact on businesses in Scotland as well as other parts of the UK The Committee raises serious concerns that a Yes vote may also leave Scotland facing a currency limbo and in the short term unable to join a sterling currency union and without the prospect of adopting the Euro Also the Scottish Government s stated intention to renationalise the Royal Mail upon achieving independence is an un costed aspiration bereft of any detail of how it is to be paid for or how it would be done The Committee also fears for the future of the Universal Postal Obligation in an independent Scotland with its continued survival likely to be secured only at significant additional cost On higher education the Committee explored the topics of student fees and UK research collaboration The central plank of the Scottish Government s HE policy to charge tuition fees to students from other parts of the UK was likely to be illegal under EU law The Committee also expressed concerns this policy would result in Scottish universities facing a financial shortfall given the significant income currently received for non domiciled UK students
