Gregory Claeys,2010-08-05 Using a combination of historical and thematic approaches this volume engages with the fascinating and complex genre of utopian literature Books in Print Supplement ,1988 American Babylon Philip S. Gorski,2020-03-31 Why did 81 percent of white evangelicals vote for Donald Trump in 2016 And what does this tell us about the relationship between Christianity and democracy in the United States American Babylon places our present political moment against a deep historical backdrop In Part I the author traces the development of democratic institutions from Ancient Greece through to the American Revolution and of Christian political theology from Augustine to Falwell Part II charts the decline of democratic governance within American churches explains the capture of evangelical Christianity by the Republican Party and denounces the fateful embrace between white Christian nationalists and right wing populists that culminated in Trump s victory An accessible and timely book American Babylon is essential reading for those concerned with the vexed relationship of religion and politics in the United States including students and scholars in the fields of divinity history political science religious studies and sociology Children's Books in Print ,1993 Paperbound Book Guide for

Colleges ,1972 Landscape, Seascape, and the Eco-Spatial Imagination Simon Estok,Jonathan White,I-Chun Wang,2016-05-12 Written from within the best traditions of ecocritical thought this book provides a wide ranging account of the spatial imagination of landscape and seascape in literary and cultural contexts from many regions of the world It brings together essays by authors writing from within diverse cultural traditions across historical periods from ancient Egypt to the postcolonial and postmodern present and touches on an array of divergent theoretical interventions The volume investigates how our spatial imaginations become wired looking at questions about mediation and exploring how various traditions compete for prominence in our spatial imagination In what ways is personal experience inflected by prevailing cultural traditions of representation and interpretation Can an individual maintain a unique and distinctive spatial imagination in the face of dominant trends in perception and interpretation What are the environmental implications of how we see landscape The book reviews how landscape is at once conceptual and perceptual illuminating several important themes including the temporality of space the mediations of place that form the response of an observer of a landscape and the development of response in any single life from early partial thoughts to more considered ideas in maturity Chapters provide suggestive and culturally nuanced propositions from varying points of view on ancient and modern landscapes and seascapes and on how individuals or societies have arranged conceptualized or imagined circumambient space Opening up issues of landscape seascape and spatiality this volume commences a wide ranging critical discussion that includes various approaches to literature history and cultural studies Bringing together research from diverse areas such as ecocriticism landscape theory colonial and postcolonial theory hybridization theory and East Asian Studies to provide a historicized and global account of our ecospatial imaginations this book will be useful for scholars of landscape ecology ecocriticism physical and social geography postcolonialism and postcolonial ecologies comparative literary studies and East Asian Studies Book News,1890 Books in Series,1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Annual Paperbound Book Guide for High Schools,1969 The Whites of Their Eyes Jill Lepore,2011-08-08 From acclaimed bestselling historian Jill Lepore the story of the American historical mythology embraced by the far right Americans have always put the past to political ends The Union laid claim to the Revolution so did the Confederacy Civil rights leaders said they were the true sons of liberty so did Southern segregationists This book tells the story of the centuries long struggle over the meaning of the nation s founding including the battle waged by the Tea Party Glenn Beck Sarah Palin and evangelical Christians to take back America Jill Lepore Harvard historian and New Yorker staff writer offers a careful and concerned look at American history according to the far right from the rant heard round the world which launched the Tea Party to the Texas School Board s adoption of a social studies curriculum that teaches that the United States was established as a Christian nation Along the way she provides rare insight into the eighteenth century struggle for independence a history of the Revolution from the archives Lepore traces the roots of the far right s reactionary history to the bicentennial in the 1970s when no one could agree on what story a divided nation should tell about its unruly beginnings Behind the Tea Party s Revolution she argues lies a nostalgic and even heartbreaking yearning for an imagined past a time less troubled by ambiguity strife and uncertainty a yearning for an America that never was The Whites of Their Eyes reveals that the far right has embraced a narrative about America s founding that is not only a fable but is also finally a variety of fundamentalism anti intellectual antihistorical and dangerously antipluralist In a new afterword Lepore addresses both the recent shift in Tea Party rhetoric from the Revolution to the Constitution and the diminished role of scholars as political commentators over the last half century of public debate

Industries of Architecture Katie Lloyd Thomas,Tilo Amhoff,Nick Beech,2015-11-06 At a time when the technologies and techniques of producing the built environment are undergoing significant change this book makes central architecture s relationship to industry Contributors turn to historical and theoretical questions as well as to key contemporary developments taking a humanities approach to the Industries of Architecture that will be of interest to practitioners and industry professionals as much as to academic researchers teachers and students How has modern architecture responded to mass production How do we understand the necessarily social nature of production in the architectural office and on the building site And how is architecture entwined within wider fields of production and reproduction finance capital the spaces of regulation and management techniques What are the particular effects of techniques and technologies and above all their inter relations on those who labour in architecture the buildings they produce and the discursive frameworks we mobilise to understand them The Annual American Catalogue,1890 Interpreting the Self Diane Bjorklund,2000-04-15 In this ambitious study Diane Bjorklund explores the historical nature of self narrative Examining over 100 American autobiographers published in the last two centuries she discusses not only well known autobiographies such as Mark Twain and Andrew Carnegie but also many obscure ones such as a traveling book peddler a minstrel a hotel proprietress an itinerant preacher a West Point cadet and a hoopskirt wire manufacturer Bjorklund draws on the colorful stories of these autobiographers to show how their historical epoch shapes their understandings of self A refreshingly welcome approach to this intriguing topic Bjorklund s extensive and systematic approach to her source material is impressive and enriches our understanding of this essential subject Virginia Quarterly Review Bjorklund studies both famous and obscure writers and her clear prose style and copious quotations provide insight into the many aspects of the changing American self Library Journal
