

The background of the slide is a complex, colorful fractal pattern. It features a dense network of branching, vein-like structures in shades of blue and green, interspersed with numerous small, bright yellow and orange spots. The overall effect is reminiscent of a microscopic view of a mineral surface or a complex biological structure. The colors transition from deep blues at the top to vibrant greens and yellows towards the bottom.

Carpenter, 2004-10-01 These poems are meant to challenge and inspire the reader You will see that poetry is a matter of perception My poems will make you laugh cry shout hurrah and search for the humanity in society Looking Within Gold a Book of Poems by Michelle Carpenter Michelle D. Carpenter, 2004-11 IN this collection of poems I show you the world in a unique perspective These are the kind of poems you can't put down You will want to get copies for your friends and family I touch on many issues in my poetry such as life death love faith survival societies issues and prejudices THE LEGEND OF THE DRUNICORN MICHELLE

MELONI, ILLUSTRATIONS BY MICHELLE MELONI AND ALIYA FURTON, 2015-04-28 A dragon and a unicorn fall in love They defy the odds and have a baby They name him Druni He is the only one of his kind in the whole world When his mommy and daddy disappear Druni is left alone and afraid Druni grows up and discovers many things in his world Not far from his home he discovers a family of humans Together Druni and his friends survive a changing world The Green Man David Russell Mosley, 2021-06-15 The Green Man is a collection of poetry that looks to the world around us and asks what lies behind the things we can see smell taste touch and hear Poetry can help us see through what Coleridge called the film of familiarity These poems attempt to help the reader pierce that veil and see the world around them in a new light Recite and Refuse Nick Admussen, 2016-10-31 Chinese prose poetry today is engaged with a series of questions that are fundamental to the modern Chinese language What is prose What is it good for How should it look and sound Millions of Chinese readers encounter prose poetry every year both in the most official of state sponsored magazines and in the unorthodox experimental work of the avant garde Recite and Refuse makes the answers to our questions about prose legible by translating surveying and interpreting prose poems and by studying the people politics and contexts that surround the writing of prose poetry Author Nick Admussen argues that unlike most genres Chinese prose poems lack a distinct size or shape Their similarity to other prose is the result of a distinct process in which a prose form is recited with some kind of meaningful difference an imitation that refuses to fully resemble its source This makes prose poetry a protean ever changing group of works channeling the language of science journalism Communist Party politics advertisements and much more The poems look vastly different as products but are made with a similar process Focusing on the composition process allows Admussen to rewrite the standard history of prose poetry finding its origins not in 1918 but in the obedient socialist prose poetry of the 1950s Recite and Refuse places the work of state sponsored writers in mutual relationship to prose poems by unorthodox and avant garde poets from cadre writers like Ke Lan and Guo Feng to the border crossing intellectual and poet Liu Zaifu to experimental artists such as Ouyang Jianghe and Xi Chuan The volume features never before seen English translations that range from the representative to the exceptional culminating with Ouyang Jianghe's masterpiece Hanging Coffin Reading across the spectrum enables us to see the way that artists interact with each other how they compete and cooperate and how their interactions as well as their creations continuously reinvent both poetry and prose Magic Carpet River Mary Malcolm, 2009-02 This volume of selected poems spans five decades and includes narrative poems playful poems mythological poems poems about poems poems paired with sculpture poems paired with drawings and haiku Clinical Preparation at the Middle Level Penny B. Ittersum,2023-11-15 In Beyond Productivity a wide range of contributors share honest narratives of the sometimes impossible conditions that scholars face when completing writing projects The essays provide backstage views of the authors varying approaches to moving forward when the desire to produce wanes when deciding a project is not working when working within and around and redefining academic productivity expectations and when writing with ever changing bodies that do not always function as expected This collection positions scholarly writers ways of writing as a form of flexible evolving knowledge By exhibiting what is lost and gained through successive rounds of transformation and adaptation over time the contributors offer a sustainable understanding and practice of process one that looks beyond productivity as the primary measure of success Each presents a fluid understanding of the writing process illustrating its deeply personal nature and revealing how fragmented and disjointed methods and experiences can highlight what is precious about writing Beyond Productivity determines anew the use and value of scholarly writing and the processes that produce it both within and beyond the context of the losses constraints and adaptations associated with the COVID 19 pandemic American Poetry after Modernism Albert Gelpi,2015-03-09 Albert Gelpi s American Poetry after Modernism is a study of sixteen major American poets of the postwar period from Robert Lowell to Adrienne Rich Gelpi argues that a distinctly American poetic tradition was solidified in the later half the twentieth century thus severing it from British conventions Irish Literature Mary Ketsin,2004 Irish literature s roots have been traced to the 7th 9th century This is a rich and hardy literature starting with descriptions of the brave deeds of kings saints and other heroes These were followed by generous veins of religious historical genealogical scientific and other works The development of prose poetry and drama raced along with the times Modern well known Irish writers include William Yeats James Joyce Sean Casey George Bernard Shaw Oscar Wilde John Synge and Samuel Beckett
