Looks and Smiles Barry Hines, 1983 Palmer's Graded Studies in the Art of Reading Music at Sight Horatio Richmond Palmer, 1891 The Song Manual Luther Orlando Emerson, 1888 The Boston Glee Book, 1839 Milton's Inward Liberty Filippo Falcone, 2014-08-19 What is true liberty Milton labors to provide an answer and his answer becomes the ruling principle behind both prose works and poetry The scholarly community has largely read liberty in Milton retrospectively through the spectacles of liberalism In so doing it has failed to emphasize that the Christian paradigm of liberty speaks of an inward microcosm a place of freedom whose precincts are defined by man's fellowship with God All other forms of freedom relate to the outer world be they freedom to choose the good absence of external constraint and oppression or freedom of alternatives None of these is true liberty but they are pursued by Milton in concert with true liberty Milton's Inward Liberty attempts to address the bearing of true liberty in Milton's work through the magnifying glass of seventeenth century theology The Face of God Roger Scruton, 2012-03-08 Roger Scruton explores the place of God in a disenchanted world His argument is a response to the atheist culture that is now growing around us and also a defence of human uniqueness He rebuts the claim that there is no meaning or purpose in the natural world and argues that the sacred and the transcendental are real presences through which human beings come to know themselves and to find both their freedom and their redemption In the human face we find a paradigm of meaning And from this experience Scruton argues we both construct the face of the world and address the face of God We find in the face both the proof of our freedom and the mark of self consciousness One of the motivations of the atheist culture is to escape from the eye of judgement You escape from the eye of judgement by blotting out the face and this Scruton argues is the most disturbing aspect of the times in which we live In his wide ranging argument Scruton explains the growing sense of destruction that we feel as the habits of pleasure seeking and consumerism deface the world His book defends a consecrated world against the habit of desecration and offers a vision of the religious way of life in a time of trial Beneatha's Place Kwame Kwei-Armah, 2023-07-13 Some things we do for those we are responsible for some things for ourselves and some things we do for the ancestors Today it's all three 1959 The first wave of independence is sweeping across Africa and Beneatha has left the prejudice of 1950s America for a brighter future with her Nigerian husband in Lagos But on the day they move into their new house in the white suburbs it doesn't take long for cracks to appear changing the course of the rest of their lives Present day Now a renowned Dean whose colleagues are questioning the role of African American studies for future generations Beneatha returns to the same house in search of answers Inspired by Lorraine Hansberry's ground breaking modern classic A Raisin in the Sun Beneatha's Place challenges today's culture wars about colonial history and reckoning with the past A razor sharp satire from Young Vic Artistic Director Kwame Kwei-Armah about the power of knowing your history and the cost of letting it go this edition was published to coincide with the London premiere at the Young Vic Theatre in June 2023 Three One Act Plays Peter Routis, 2019-09-24

When the Prince of Darkness decides to destroy Job the curtain on his life and that of his family will be drawn Although a loyal servant to God Job finds peace with himself and his God after his destruction where he finally finds his place in heaven The Tragedy of Job captivates the audience with the brilliant elegant and compelling dialogues and soliloquies which bring to life this biblical tragedy Eli a Jewish high priest one of the last Israelite judges before the rule of kings lived his life serving God at the tabernacle in Shiloh He took under his wings Samuel who succeeded him as the last Israelite judge His end comes at the age of ninety eight when he learnt blind now that his sons were killed by the Philistines the Ark of the Covenant was captured and his daughter in law dies while giving birth to a son With captivating dialogues and soliloquies the drama of Eli underlines one of the most heartbreaking tragedies of the biblical era When the earth is destroyed due to climate change there are two lonely souls who meet at the side of a mountain trying to make sense out of this The Old Man who has spent his life searching for the truth desperation takes over him Someone said that darkness hides the truth And someone else said that darkness is everywhere But there is hope as long as the sun rises every morning and the stars shine above the ruins of civilization But hope always comes after hopeless moments I thought you mocked me the other night I thought you would never appear again But there you are Is that a hope It can't be But again what kind of a hope when everything is hopeless For Johanna and Theodore who deserve better I know that each one of us travels to love alone alone to faith and to death I know it I've tried it It doesn't help Let me come with you
