Anderson, 2024-11-25 Critical and historical discussions of the life and work of Federico García Lorca Spain's foremost poet and playwright of the twentieth century often obscure the author's more avant garde dramatic works In Lorca's Experimental Theater Andrew A. Anderson focuses on four of Lorca's most challenging plays Amor de don Perlimplín con Belisa en su jardín El público As que pasen cinco años and El sueño de la vida previously known as Comedia sin título and on the surrounding context in which they came to be written and in only one case performed during his lifetime While none of Lorca's plays can be considered conventional these four works stand out in his corpus for challenging theatrical conventions most forcefully both thematically and technically With discussions of stagecraft artistic modernism and the historical avant garde Lorca's Experimental Theater provides detailed interpretive readings of the four plays surveys their textual and performative history and examines the most important contemporary influences on Lorca's creation of these expressive innovative works Two cines con niño Erin K. Hogan, 2018-08-23 The Two cines con niño is the first genre study of Spanish language child starred cinemas It illuminates continuities in the political use of the child protagonist in over fifty years of Spanish cinema and how the child starred genres use the concept of childhood to retrospectively define the nation and its future The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to

Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators

Exploring Race, Ethnicity, Gender, and Sexuality in Four Spanish Plays Beth Ann Bernstein, 2021-07-21 Exploring Race Ethnicity Gender and Sexuality in Four Spanish Plays explores society s influence on identity in Spanish theatrical works and discusses parallels to these works in contemporary popular culture The Spanish plays El retablo de las maravillas The Marvelous Puppet Show by Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra 1615 Virtudes vencen se ales Virtues Overcome Signs by V lez de Guevara 1620 El p blico The Audience by Federico Garc a Lorca 1929 and La llamada de Lauren Lauren s Call by Paloma Pedrero 1985 all deal with characters in the midst of a crisis of identity Using an eclectic approach supported by contemporary theories of race ethnicity gender and sexuality Beth Bernstein analyzes the four plays in terms of identity and shows how society imposes the construction of identity As the characters reach to define themselves internal and external pressures guide them in interpreting acceptable behavior This book offers a close reading of the psychological struggle of the characters driven by society to cover their differences with a symbolic mask which if donned will eventually devour their true identity
