Hoshowsky, 2007-04-30 Although they committed separate crimes Arthur Lucas and Ronald Turpin met their deaths on the same scaffold at Toronto's Don Jail on December 11 1962 They were the last two people executed in Canada but surprisingly little was known about them until now This is the first book to uncover the lives and deaths of Turpin a Canadian criminal and Lucas a Detroit gangster The result of more than five years of research The Last to Die is based on original interviews hidden documents trial transcripts and newspaper accounts Featuring crime scene photos and never before published documents this riveting book also reveals the heroic efforts of lawyer Ross MacKay who defended both men and Chaplain Cyril Everitt who remained with them to the end What actually happened the night of the hangings is shrouded by myth and rumour This book finally confirms the truth and reveals the gruesome mistake that cost Arthur Lucas not only his life but also his head Theatre and the Macabre Meredith Conti, Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2022-03-01 The macabre as a process and product has been haunting the theatre and more broadly performance for thousands of years In its embodied meditations on death and dying its thematic and aesthetic grotesquerie and its sensory rich environments macabre theatre invites artists and audiences to trace the stranger darker contours of human existence In this volume numerous scholars explore the morbid and gruesome onstage from freak shows to the French Grand Guignol from Hell Houses to German Trauerspiel from immersive theatre to dark tourism stopping along the way to look at phantoms severed heads dark rides haunted mothers and haunting children dances of death and dismembered bodies From Japan to Australia to England to the United States the global macabre is framed and juxtaposed to understand how the theatre brings us face to face with the deathly and the horrific Heads Will Roll, 2012-01-20 The decapitation motif recurs in nearly all medieval and early modern genres from saints lives and epics to comedies and romances yet decollation is often little regarded save as a marker of humanity that is as the moment mortality exits or inhumanity that is as the moment the supernatural enters However as a seat of reason wisdom and even the soul the head has long been afforded a special place in the body politic even when separated from its body proper Capitalizing upon the enduring fascination with decapitation in European culture this collection examines through a variety of critical lenses the recurring roles rolls of severed human heads in the medieval and early modern imagination Contributors are Nicola Masciandaro Mark Faulkner Jay Paul Gates Christine Cooper Rompato Dwayne Coleman Mary Leech Tina Boyer Ren e Ward Andrew Fleck Thomas Herron Thea Cervone and Asa Simon Mittman Preface by Jeffrey Jerome Cohen Death in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Times Albrecht Classen, 2016-04-11 Death is not only the final moment of life it also casts a huge shadow on human society at large People throughout time have had to cope with death as an existential experience and this also of course in the premodern world The contributors to the present volume examine the material and spiritual conditions of the culture of death studying specific buildings and spaces literary works and art objects theatrical performances and medical tracts from the early Middle Ages to the late eighteenth century Death has always evoked fear terror and awe it has puzzled and troubled people forcing theologians and philosophers to respond and provide answers for questions that seem to evade real explanations The more we learn about the culture of death the more we can comprehend the culture of life As this volume demonstrates the approaches to death varied widely also in the Middle Ages and the early modern age This volume hence adds a significant number of new facets to the critical examination of this ever present phenomenon of death exploring poetic responses to the Black Death types of execution of a female murderess death as the springboard for major political changes and death reflected in morality plays and art Histories of Crime Anne-Marie Kilday, David Nash, 2010-06-03 Providing a rounded and coherent history of crime and the law spanning the past 400 years Histories of Crime explores the evolution of attitudes towards crime and criminality over time Bringing together contributions from internationally acknowledged experts the book highlights themes current issues and key debates in the history of deviance and bad behaviour including Marital cruelty and adultery Infanticide Murder The underworld Blasphemy and moral crimes Fraud and white collar crime The death penalty and punishment Individual case studies of violent and non violent crime are used to explore the human means and motives behind criminal practice Through these the book illuminates society s wider attitudes and fears about criminal behaviour and the way in which these influence the law and legal system over time This fascinating book is essential reading for students and teachers of history sociology and criminology as well as anyone interested in Britain's criminal past Devon Murders John Kiste, 2012-02-29 It recounts several notable cases from the killing of Sarah and Edward Glass at Wadland Down in 1827 and the poisonings of Samuel Wescombe in Exeter in 1829 and William Ashford at Honiton Clyst in 1866 both by wives whose affections had gone elsewhere to the horrific murder of Emma Doidge and her boyfriend William Rowe by the former s jilted suitor at Peter Tavey in 1892 as well as the strangling of schoolgirl Alice Gregory in 1916 and the triple murder of Emily Maye and her daughters at West Charleton Kingsbridge in 1936 which remains unsolved to this day Above all there is an account of Devon's most famous case the murder of Emma Keyse at Babbacombe and the convicted servant John Lee the man they couldn't hang John Van der Kiste's carefully researched well illustrated and enthralling text will appeal to anyone interested in the shady side of Devon's history The Flight of Icarus James S. Amelang, 1998-08-01 Exploring autobiographical texts written by European urban craftsmen from the fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries this wide ranging book studies memoirs diaries family chronicles travel narratives and other forms of personal writings from Spain France Italy Germany and England In the process it considers the motivations of the authors the changing forms and emphases of artisan narratives and more generally the significance of written self expression in early modern popular culture By analyzing reading and writing as practices laden with social meaning this work aims to illuminate the changing role of the lower classes and other groups considered marginal in the history of literature and literacy It uncovers an Icarian logic by which writing about the self and one s immediate and private world developed as a complex response to widely shared expectations regarding the cultural and political subordination of craftsmen and others relegated to the margins of public life and discourse The book also contributes to the contemporary interdisciplinary debate concerning the nature and evolution of autobiographical writing It draws upon those currents within literary studies such as feminist criticism which favor a more flexible approach to the study of first person narrative than that adopted by traditional literary critics and historians of ideas It also argues for revising the standard history of autobiography eschewing the teleological presentation of a small handful of classic texts in favor of a more nuanced trajectory in which a wide range of social actors helped shape the emerging patterns of modern self understanding and expression Towards the Gallows Tom Mitchell, Reinhold Kramer, 2004-02-11 On 5 July 1899 Hilda Blake a 21 year old maidservant in Brandon Manitoba who had come to Canada from England ten years earlier as an orphan immigrant shot and killed her mistress Two days after Christmas she was hanged one of the few women in Canadian history to die for her crime Blake unintentionally left a remarkable documentary record ranging from Poorhouse records courts dockets of custody and criminal cases in which she was the central figure popular journalistic and professional assessments of her character and a poem My Downfall that she penned in Brandon Gaol while awaiting execution To explain why Hilda bought a gun and why she fired it Kramer and Mitchell employee both historical and literary techniques The result is a richly textured story of late Victorian social cultural and political life This remarkable book part mystery part historical detective story uncovers Hilda Blake s life from her origins in Norfolk England to her tragic death It also examines the lives of other principals in the story successful Brandon businessman Robert Lane and his wife Mary the murdered woman Lane's business partner Alexander McIlvride Police Chief James Kircaldy A P Stewart and his wife Letitia Singer Stewart the family for whom the 12 year old orphaned Hilda first worked as a domestic servant Rev C C McLaurin the Baptist minister who knew Hilda and counselled the condemned woman in her final days social purity activist Dr Amelia Yeomans who petitioned for clemency Governor General Minto who urged the Laurier government to stay the execution even Clifford Sifton the MP from Brandon federal minister of Immigration and the most powerful western Liberal in the Laurier cabinet for whom the case was a potential minefield As the authors write We tell a story because only a story can expose the real workings of a culture and only a story Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D.
