

The background of the image is a photograph of a forest. A path or road leads from the bottom left towards the center of the image, disappearing into the trees. The trees are mostly bare, suggesting a late autumn or winter setting. The lighting is soft, and the overall tone is somewhat somber and contemplative.

Winston,2009-03-01 A remarkably assured and accomplished debut novel that encompasses the bursting life of contemporary Chicago Looped tells the separate stories of a diverse group of Chicagoans black brown and white gay straight and bi as their lives unfold in diverging and occasionally converging ways over the course of the year 2000 Among the characters are the family of a middle class black postman whose runaway daughter has just learned she s pregnant a gifted half Vietnamese high schooler whose troubled father spies on the son he abandoned years earlier a tradition bound Greek diner owner whose upwardly mobile daughter embarrassed by her ethnic roots is snarled in a loveless marriage a gay chef whose shaky relationship is strained by the visit of his closeted lover s uncle a Catholic priest and the motley members of an up and coming band shaken by the breakup of its ambitious lead guitarist and his sexually confused songwriter girlfriend Ambitious sprawling engrossing multifaceted insightful and readable Looped explodes with a life and vitality that mirrors the multicultural reality of 21st century Chicago where the families that sustain us are more likely to be those we ve created than those we re born to Adornment Ally Cassidy,2019-08-11 Elliott a gritty and angry twenty something year old struggles to crack the code for life once his mildly successful band falls apart and resorts to living in his friend s basement while working at a coffee shop Summer the literal personification of the sun orders the same thing every morning and manages to never wear the same sweater twice at least in front of Elliott After Summer mumbles her number from behind the lid of a coffee cup they spend their days wrapped in each other s arms and trying to combat self doubt an alcohol problem and life itself

The Only Rule Is It Has to Work Ben Lindbergh,Sam Miller,2016-05-03 What would happen if two statistics minded outsiders were allowed to run a professional baseball team It s the ultimate in fantasy baseball You get to pick the roster set the lineup and decide on strategies with real players in a real ballpark playing in real time That s what Ben Lindbergh and Sam Miller got to do when the Sonoma Stompers an independent minor league team in California offered them the chance to run the team s baseball operations according to the most advanced statistics Their story is unlike any other baseball tale you ve ever read We tag along as Lindbergh and Miller apply their number crunching insights to all aspects of assembling and running a team We meet colorful figures like general manager Theo Fightmaster and boundary breakers like the first openly gay player and the first Japanese manager in American professional baseball Even Jos Canseco makes a cameo appearance Will sabermetrics bring the Stompers a championship or will they fall on their face Will the team have a competitive advantage or is the old folk wisdom really true after all Will the players be able to maximize their talents and attract the attention of big league scouts or will this be a fast track to oblivion It s a wild ride as the authors infectious enthusiasm and feel for the absurd make the Stompers story one that will speak to numbers geeks and traditionalists alike And it proves that you don't need a bat or a glove to make a genuine contribution to the game Sisterlocking Discoarse Valerie Lee, 2021-11-01 Finalist for the 2021 Foreword INDIES Book of the Year Award in the Education Category In Sisterlocking Discoarse hair is a medium for reflecting on how academic leadership looks performs and changes when embodied by a Black woman In these ten essays Valerie Lee traverses disciplines and genres weaving together memoir literary analysis legal cases folklore letters travelogues family photographs and cartoons to share her story of navigating academia Lee's path is not singular or linear but rather communal and circular as she revisits her earliest years in her grandmother's home advances through the professoriate and senior administration and addresses her hopes and fears for her own children Drawing inspiration from the African American storytelling traditions she has spent decades studying and teaching Lee approaches issues of race gender social justice academic labor and leadership with a voice that is clear intimate and humorous As she writes in the introduction Sisterlocking Discoarse is about braiding and breathing and believing that a Black woman's journey through the academy is important Lee's journey will appeal to students faculty and administrators across fields and institutions who are committed to making higher education more inclusive while speaking to the experiences of professional women of color more broadly The Playground Potting Shed Dominic Murphy, 2012-06-05 Winner of Garden Media Guild Award for Young Gardener Initiative Recommended by BBC Radio 4's Gardeners Question Time In The Playground Potting Shed Dominic Murphy relates how he helped his local school establish a garden and grow a stunning array of flowers fruit and vegetables during term time Week by week he describes the small triumphs and inevitable setbacks he encountered while getting the gardening club off the ground and shares friendly advice on everything from environmentally friendly pest control to avoiding troublesome varieties of vegetables The result is a timely and inspiring guide that is guaranteed to get young people gardening Baby Talk Judith Keim, 2015-10-24 This is a women's fiction novel about adoption family and the love of motherhood A gift from the heart is the best gift of all When Marissa Crawford and her husband Brad decide to start a family Marissa has serious doubts about her ability to be a good mother she was raised by one of the worst Torn between telling Brad the truth and hoping she doesn't get pregnant Marissa's life is completely upended when a baby girl is left in a basket on the front porch of her large home in Maine Caring for the baby given specifically to Brad and her Marissa must decide what her role in life is all about Attempting to overcome her past she's faced with agonizing decisions As she opens her heart to those who need her she is challenged in unexpected ways and discovers a joy greater than she's ever known A family story with heart Be sure to read the other books in the series The Talking Tree Sweet Talk and Straight Talk And check out Judith Keim's other series the Hartwell Women The Beach House Hotel series the Fat Fridays series the Salty Key Inn series the Chandler Hill Inn series the Desert Sage Inn series and the Seashell Cottage Books that readers are loving Hartwell Women Series Judith Keim, 2017-01-07 Marissa Cole discovers a family she never knew she had and befriends
