This bizarre magical place was the location for Tara in Gone with The Wind the home of King Kong and Superman of Tarzan and Batman of the Green Hornet of Elliot Ness of Barney Fife of Tarzan of Rebecca of Citizen Kane of Hogan's Heroes and Gomer Pyle of Lasse of A Star is Born and Star Trek and at least twice of Jesus Christ For decades every conceivable star in Hollywood from Clark Gable to Warren Beatty worked and loved and gave indelible performances on the site And yet today it is completely forgotten Pretty much anyone alive today from college professors to longshoremen have probably heard of Paramount and of MGM of Warner Bros and of Universal and of Disney and Fox and Columbia but the place where many of these studio s beloved classics were minted is today as mysterious and unknowable as the sphinx Hollywood's Lost Backlot 40 Acres of Glamour and Mystery will for the first time ever unwind the colorful and convoluted threads that make for the tale of one of the most influential and photographed places in the world A place which most have visited at least on screen and which has contributed significantly and unexpectedly to the world's popular culture and yet which few people today paradoxically have ever heard of Lost Hollywood Jack Woody, 1987 Gathers portraits and movie stills of actresses and actors of the silent film Lost Illusions David A. Cook, 2002-03-15 This volume examines the development of film and the film industry during era the 1970s and the political and economic background that influenced it The Lost One Stephen Youngkin, 2005-09-30 Often typecast as a menacing figure Peter Lorre achieved Hollywood fame first as a featured player and later as a character actor trademarking his screen performances with a delicately strung balance between good and evil His portrayal of the child murderer in Fritz Lang's masterpiece M 1931 catapulted him to international fame Lang said of Lorre He gave one of the best performances in film history and certainly the best in his life Today the Hungarian born actor is also recognized for his riveting performances in The Man Who Knew Too Much 1934 The Maltese Falcon 1941 and Casablanca 1942 Lorre arrived in America in 1934 expecting to shed his screen image as a villain He even tried to lose his signature accent but Hollywood repeatedly cast him as an outsider who hinted at things better left unknown Seeking greater control over his career Lorre established his own production company His unofficial graylisting by the House Committee on Un American Activities however left him with little work He returned to Germany where he co authored directed and starred in the film Der Verlorene The Lost One in 1951 German audiences rejected Lorre's dark vision of their recent past and the actor returned to America wearily accepting roles that parodied his sinister movie personality The first biography of this major actor The Lost One A Life of Peter Lorre draws upon more than three hundred interviews including conversations with directors Fritz Lang Alfred Hitchcock Billy Wilder John Huston Frank Capra and Rouben Mamoulian who speak candidly about Lorre both the man and the actor Author Stephen D Youngkin examines for the first time Lorre's pivotal relationship with German dramatist Bertolt Brecht his experience as an migr from Hitler's Germany his battle with drug addiction and his struggle with the choice between celebrity and intellectual respectability Separating the enigmatic person from the persona long associated with one of classic Hollywood's most recognizable faces.
