Lost Hunger Part I Of The Hunger Trilogy:

China's Intellectuals and the State Merle Goldman, Timothy Cheek, Carol Lee Hamrin, 2020-10-26 Today's intellectuals in China inherit a mixed tradition in terms of their relationship to the state. Some follow the Confucian literati watchdog role of criticizing abuses of political power. Marxist intellectuals judge the state's practices on the basis of Communist ideals. Others prefer the May Fourth spirit dedicated to the principles of free scholarly and artistic expression. The Chinese government for its part has undulated in its treatment of intellectuals, applying restraints when free expression threatened to get out of control, relaxing controls when state policies required the cooperation, good will, and expertise of intellectuals. In this stimulating work, twelve Chinese scholars examine that troubled and changing relationship. They focus primarily on the post-Mao years when bitter memories of the Cultural Revolution and China's renewed quest for modernization have at times allowed intellectuals increased leeway in expression and more influence in policy making. Specialists examine the situation with respect to economists, lawyers, scientists, and technocrats, writers, and humanist scholars in the climate of Deng Xiaoping's policies and speculate about future developments. This book will be a valuable source of information for anyone interested in the changing scene in contemporary China and in its relations with the outside world. Promotional Screen Industries

Paul Grainge, Catherine Johnson, 2015-03-27 From the trailers and promos that surround film and television to the ads and brand videos that are sought out and shared, promotional media have become a central part of contemporary screen life. Promotional Screen Industries is the first book to explore the sector responsible for this thriving area of media production. In a wide-ranging analysis, Paul Grainge and Catherine Johnson explore the intermediaries, advertising agencies, television promotion specialists, movie trailer houses, digital design companies that compete and collaborate in the fluid, fast-moving world of promotional screen work. Through interview-based fieldwork with companies and practitioners based in the UK, US, and China, Promotional Screen Industries encourages us to see promotion as a professional and creative discipline with its own opportunities and challenges. Outlining how shifts in the digital media environment have unsettled the boundaries of promotion and content, the authors provide new insight into the sector's work strategies and imaginaries of contemporary screen promotion. With case studies on mobile communication, television, film, and live events, this timely book offers a compelling examination of the industrial configurations and media forms such as ads, apps, promos, trailers, digital shorts, branded entertainment, and experiential media that define promotional screen culture at the beginning of the twenty-first century. Losing Beck

Susan Hahn, 2018-12-04 A young poet's relationship with a predatory professor is explored through a diary, a play, and a novella dealing with themes of grief, trauma, and desire. Jennie Silver has been seduced, abused, and abandoned by Benedict Eck, a Midwestern literature professor known for being influenced by Hungarian migrant novelist Avigdor Element and a notorious womanizer known for preying on vulnerable graduate students. In the process, Jennie keeps a diary and writes a play and a novella in her attempt to control her desperate, high-pitched emotions focused on a man she is uncontrollably drawn to and at the same time finds repugnant a man who is one of the keepers and part of the legacy of Element s bad behavior Spanning a hundred years of history from when Nijinsky danced The Afternoon of the Faun in Paris in 1912 through World Wars I and II to very close to the present Losing Beck is not only a portrait of one woman s relationship with one man but an exploration of obsession grief desire and the effects of historical trauma This triptych of narratives contains a plenitude of characters driven by overpowering emotions and dark motives I was especially fascinated by the meticulous scrutiny of family relations especially mother daughter attachments often dramatized against a backdrop of twentieth century Jewish history Laurence Goldstein author of The American Poet at the Movies A Critical History The missing part Antonia Romero,2019-12-08 Eva a nurse and physiotherapist who because of the crisis she does find a job in the health field Eventually she accepts a job as Carmen Grimaldos helper a multimillionaire lady a bit excentric co owner of a hotels chain along with Ander Izarra her step son Carmen once she discovered Eva s worth to carry out any activity decided to designate her as a manager with the only target of making her partner s life miserable The two of them keep cystic in time relationship of hatred and revenge However what she does not imagine is that decision will change her life her employee s life and all the people around her Girls on Fire Sarah Hentges,2018-04-04 Under the threat of climate change corruption inequality and injustice Americans may feel they are living in a dystopian novel come to life Like many American narratives dystopian stories often focus on males as the agents of social change With a focus on the intersections of race gender class sexuality and power the author analyzes the themes issues and characters in young adult YA dystopian fiction featuring female protagonists the Girls on Fire who inspire progressive transformation for the future Worlds Gone Awry John J. Zierler,2017-08-16 Brings popular cinema and Jewish religious texts into a meaningful dialogue Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief but Wendy I Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective exploring what Jewish tradition text and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication Zierler turns that process around beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought Films covered include The Truman Show truth Memento memory Crimes and Misdemeanors sin Magnolia confession and redemption The Descendants birthright Forrest Gump cleverness and simplicity and The Hunger Games creation of humanity in God s image among others This is a
